Radio Signals Spur Hunt For Missing Ship

HALIFAX, N. S. (AP)—Faint radio signals spurred the search today for the Danish ship Hans Hedtoft, missing with 95 persons since it hit an iceberg Friday in heavy seas off Greenland.

The weak signals were believed to be from a lifeboat of the 2,785-ton Hedtoft. There had been no trace of the ship or survivors since she hit the ice.

The signals were heard by two Danish radio stations on the Greenland coast and the Danish motorship Umanak, which had swung off its Greenland-Denmark run yesterday to join the search.

The first signals were heard about 5 p.m. and then again between 10 and 11 p.m.

SIGNALS WEAK

The Umanak's radioman said the signals were sent by an untrained operator and were very weak and irregularly spaced. He said it appeared the sender was trying to transmit distress signals or a homing beacon.

The Umanak at the time was 60 miles west of Greenland's Cape Farewell, and the signals apparently came from a position southwest of there. Greenland experts in Copenhagen said it would have been possible for the Hedtoft's lifeboats to have drifted that far west.

BAD WEATHER

Continuing bad weather reduced the air search to one Canadian air force plane.

A search plane yesterday reported it had spotted what could have been an overturned lifeboat near the Hedtoft's last reported position in the north Atlantic. It was described as a double-ended craft with a lengthwise black stripe. But the Royal-Greenland Trading Department said the missing ship's lifeboats were all made of aluminum and were unpainted.

Severe Bends For Marin Skin Diver

James E. French III, 22, of San Anselmo, today was released from a Navy recompression chamber at Hunter's Point after 48 hours recovering from the "bends" he suffered on a Marin Skin Diving Club expedition—but only to be taken by ambulance to Stanford Hospital at Palo Alto, where he may remain for weeks.

Young French was the victim of a "lucky" toss of the coin that sent him to a new diving record off Point Lobos—from which he rose to the surface too fast.

He descended 350 feet into the water, according to his brother, LeRoy, 21, of 40 Ross avenue, San Anselmo. But he returned to the surface in seven and one-half minutes—far too fast.

When he was pulled out by his fellow skin divers, he was clutching the marker which had been attached to the end of a 350-foot line dropped over the side of the party boat, the "Jolly Roger," in which the skin divers were sailing.

He was also suffering from an acute attack of the "bends," from rising too rapidly from beneath great pressure, without giving the nitrogen in his body time to be cleared from the blood stream.

The skipper of the party boat radioed for help, and a Coast Guard-Army-Navy mercy mission went into action.

But it was the flip of a coin that sent Jimmy French 350 feet into the water. This was disclosed today by Mrs. Burnell D. Hendrickson of 417 First street, San Rafael, wife of another of the party of nine Marin Skin Divers Club members who were on the expedition.

For months, said Mrs. Hendrickson, the club members had talked about trying for a new American skin diving record, to exceed the 327 feet which was the deepest such a diver in this country had ever descended.

They decided on the location for the dive—in clear water off Point Lobos, Monterey County. They decided on the date.

Fire Routs Raphael Village Couple And Five Children

Fire, believed to have been started by a child with a cigarette lighter, routed a Raphael Village couple and their five children last night.

One daughter, Paulette, 13, was severely cut on both arms when she broke a bedroom window in an attempt to spray water on the flames with a garden hose.

The blaze broke out about 7:30 p.m. in the home of A/2c Walter Chaney at 695 Morgan avenue.

The Hamilton Air Force Base Fire Department responded to the alarm with two trucks, and estimated damage at $750, confined mainly to a closet and curtains in the bedroom.

Mrs. Chaney said she and Paulette were watching television in the living room when they heard the other children cry, "Fire! Fire, mother!"

Mrs. Chaney rushed to the bedroom, where her children were preparing for bed, to find flames shooting out the closet door. Her husband was asleep in another bedroom. One child was in the bathtub.

"I woke up my husband and took the children outside," Mrs. Chaney said today. "Then I called the Novato Fire Department. (The Hamilton firemen were notified by the Novato Fire District.)

"They were real good children," Mrs. Chaney boasted. "They trooped out very calmly. I'm happy to say."

Donald, 6, was plucked from his bath and carried outside in a towel by his mother. The other children, Carol, 9, Kathy, 8, and Debby, 7, stood on the sidewalk in their nightclothes watching their smoking house.

HAND GRENADE FOUND IN WALL OF MARIN HOME

A hand grenade, believed to be live, was found between the inner and outer walls of a Fairfax home yesterday.

Mrs. Richard Mitchell of 16 Buena Vista drive, called Fairfax police about noon when her son pulled the grenade from the walls of their newly acquired home. They were insulating the wall before redecorating.

Ellis Seibert, chief criminal deputy in the sheriff's office, said the grenade would probably be disposed of in the bay. "We didn't want it lying around here," said Seibert.

Marin Man, 2 Girls Hurt In Crash On Sonoma Road

A San Rafael father and two daughters were injured when the car he was driving struck a stump on narrow Duncan Mills road two miles northwest of Monte Rio in Sonoma County Saturday night.

Kenneth H. Irwin of 1000 C street and his daughter Suzanne, 12, remained in Palm Drive Hospital today, under treatment for extensive cuts about their heads and faces. A second daughter, Nancy, 10, went home yesterday after remaining overnight in the hospital with similar injuries.

Irwin said he was blinded by headlights of an oncoming car, the California Highway Patrol reported. He swerved to avoid the car and ran into the stump.

Fair Skies Seen For 5 More Days

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The outlook is for continued fair, dry weather with blue skies in most of California for the next few days, at least.

The five-day broadcast, through next Saturday, said there was a possibility of light rain late in the period in the northern counties but there would be none in central third. Temperatures should be near or above normal.

The northern and central portions of the state had bright sunshine yesterday but there was variable cloudiness and a few light showers in Southern California. There was an evening thunderstorm near San Diego. By this morning, however, all areas had cleared except for a few cloudy spots in the extreme south.

All's Quiet As Virginia Schools Admit Negroes

GROUNDHOG SCURRIES BACK INTO HIS HOLE

PUNXSUTAWNEY, Pa. (AP)—The groundhog darn near froze to death this morning. And there will be six more weeks of winter.

Thus reports the groundhog's chief keeper. Promptly at 8:23 a.m., Sam Light led a procession of a few hearty members of the famed Punxsutawney Groundhog Club to Gobbler's Knob, a little hill on the outskirts of this western Pennsylvania town.

It was 10 below zero, declared Light, the president of the club. But, despite all this, the groundhog poked his nose out and, as promptly, scurried back into his hole. This means there will be six more weeks of winter.

Historic Changeover Made Without Strife

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Virginia admitted 21 Negroes to white public schools today in a reluctant but peaceful change from a policy of massive resistance to integration.

Seventeen Negroes were admitted to schools in Norfolk and four at Arlington in the Washington suburbs.

There was not the slightest incident, despite a few pre-openings rumblings that there would be picketing and strife. Gov. J. Lindsay Almond Jr.

said he was highly gratified at the peaceful changeover. Norfolk School Supt. John J. Brewbaker voiced pride in all the people of his city.

"Virginia and the entire nation should be proud of the manner in which our city has shown the fine caliber of its citizens," Brewbaker said.

Until today, affected schools in Norfolk had been closed since last summer in the severe application of a Virginia law that required the closing of any school that was integrated.

STILL SEGREGATED

Other schools that were closed under the same law are in Charlottesville—permitted to open segregated today under an eleventh-hour court reprieve that postponed integration until next September—and at Front Royal in Warren County. The affected school there did not open today.

Virginia bowed to integration only after federal courts had knocked down every state barrier and after the legislature had passed fresh laws to cushion the impact of the historic transition.

WHITES GAPE

At one school where Negroes were admitted, white pupils formed a long corridor down which walked two Negro girls, their heads erect, their eyes on the doorway to a new school and a new way of life.

"I said all along there wouldn't be any trouble and there was none," said Principal Charles W. Purdue, a former Duke University football star and now principal of Norfolk's big Norview High.

Phil Thomas, a 15-year-old Norfolk white student, said: "Boy, did I get a lecture from my dad last night. He said 'you just stand there. Don't do anything.'"

ALL QUIET

In Arlington, where police patrols and officers with gas masks were prepared for anything, School Supt. Ray E. Reid said with relief that "I am happy to learn there were no incidents and that everything is quiet."

A boycott had been threatened by white pupils at Arlington but it failed to develop.

Joan Potts, a white girl at Arlington, said she did not want to attend school with Negroes and went home. Her father sent her back to school. Four white boys also asked permission to leave but changed their minds.

TUITION GRANTS

Under a new state law, however, the state would provide up to $250 annually in tuition grants for any white pupils who do not want to attend an integrated school.

White children were in a jolly frame of mind as they trooped back to classes that had been closed since September to keep the schools from being racially mixed.

Today's integration was the biggest test since President Eisenhower sent troops to restore order in Little Rock, Ark., in September, 1957.

Kites Tangle In Power Lines; 800 Homes Blacked Out

Kites and electricity may have made interesting experiments for Benjamin Franklin, but they made frightening combinations yesterday for two Marin small fry.

A total of about 800 homes were blacked out in San Rafael and Corte Madera as a result of two separate kite-high tension wire entanglements.

Power was cut for an hour and one-half to more than 600 homes in San Rafael, starting at 10:05 a.m. when a kite flown by 13-year-old Heather Forsyth of 120 Montecito avenue, San Rafael, became snared in a 12,000 volt line near her home.

As Heather attempted to pull her kite free but instead pulled the house with smoke. San Rafael firemen said no other damage was done.

Power was restored before noon.

The girl kite-flier was unhurt, but a Pacific Gas and Electric Co. representative said if there had been any metallic substance or moisture in the kite string, the girl would probably have been seriously injured or killed.

Power was off to several hundred homes and businesses in the Corte Madera Center and Madera Gardens area from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. when a kite flown by an unidentified boy hit a 15,000-volt line at Meadowsweet and Tamalpais drives.

The child was gone upon the arrival of PG and E repair crews.

A third Marin power failure occurred in Sausalito at 5:10 a.m. when wind apparently knocked two 4,000-volt lines together at Cazneau and Curry avenues. The break left about 50 homes without power for more than three hours.

Yesterday's stiff breezes, besides bringing out kites, contributed to two other mishaps.

San Anselmo had its first grass fire of the year at 2:15 p.m. at the end of Valley road. Grass on the hillside was fanned by a strong breeze. Firemen worked more than an hour to extinguish the fire. Its cause is unknown.

5 Jailed For Tiburon Theft

Five Marines from Camp Pendleton in Southern California were jailed Saturday on suspicion of burglary of the Southern Marin Recreation Center in Tiburon.

One of the five, aged 17, was sent to Marin Juvenile Hall. The other four were jailed and released on their own recognizance by Judge Richard M. Sims. They are Jack P. Burris, 19, of 19 Knoll lane, Mill Valley; Richard O'Neal Shields, 20, of Joliet, Ill.; Thomas Frank Connor, 20, of 1785 Centro West, Tiburon, and Thomas Calloway, 21, Menlo Park.

All five are scheduled to appear in Marin Municipal Court on Friday at 1:30 p.m.

Sheriff's investigators said Connor admitted he and Shields entered the building and carried about a dozen bottles of liquor to the car. Then they went back into the building for a second haul, when Deputies David Greeson and Harold Sleezer drove up on a routine check.

As pre-arranged, Burris, the driver, feigned motor trouble. He asked the officers for a flashlight to check the distributor. They repaired one "loose" wire and the car started immediately. Burris explained he had just dropped Connor off at his home in Tiburon.

At the time, the officers did not know that the recreation center had been entered. But as a routine precaution, Greeson took the license number of the car.

Howard J. Adams, manager of the center, discovered the break-in Saturday morning. Glass on the west door had been smashed. Adams and Mrs. See BREAK-IN, page 2

Market Theft In Tam Valley Worth $1,000

Thieves broke into Shoreline Market in Tamalpais Valley during the weekend and got away with about $400 in coins and about 600 cartons of cigarettes for a total haul in excess of $1,000.

Investigators said the burglars had to scale the wall alongside the lean-to that houses the refrigeration motors, then climb down a 24-foot ladder through a trap door in the roof.

Some liquor is also missing, but owner Alfred Joaquin Santos said today he has not yet determined the exact liquor loss. He discovered the break-in about 8 a.m. yesterday. Sheriff's deputies Ray Barton, Edmund Maubert, Harold Sleezer, and Inspector William Bradley investigated. Bradley said eight to 10 cases of cigarettes (60 cartons to a case) are gone.

All loose change from the drawer of a file cabinet to the rear of the market was gone. Santos said a locked drawer, which was not opened, contained another $500 in currency.

Sunday Morning Furnace Fire Damages St. Stephen's Church

A smoldering furnace fire at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Belvedere yesterday caused damage estimated at $4,500. The loss was covered by insurance.

The fire was confined to the furnace and the furnace room.

Rev. Edward John Mohr, arriving to conduct an 8 o'clock communion service, noticed smoke coming from the wall vents of the furnace room.

Twenty-three volunteer firemen under Chief L. P. Mersereau responded to his call.

The furnace room adjoins the concrete masonry wall of a new $125,000 parish hall completed last fall.

Reverend Mohr said the furnace had been in operation since the church was built in 1955. Last week, new automatic controls were installed. Apparently the furnace became overheated during the Susan Elaine Agee, 6-year-old daughter of a San Anselmo seminary student, died yesterday of leukemia.

She is survived by her parents, Dean and Loretta Agee of 42 Mariposa avenue, San Anselmo, and four brothers, Dale, 9; Roger, 7; Paul, 3, and Mark, 19 months.
Susan became ill more than a year and a half ago. She was able to enter kindergarten at Wade Thomas School last fall, in spite of periodically becoming seriously ill and requiring blood transfusions.
Susan was apparently in good health at Christmas, which she spent in Seattle with her family visiting two sets of grandparents, Sgt. and Mrs. John W. Agee and Mr. and Mrs. Lee L. Carr.
She became seriously ill a week ago. At 12:11 a.m. yesterday a resuscitator crew from the San Anselmo Fire Department was called to administer oxygen. The child was pronounced dead at 12:23 a.m. by Dr. Eugene Shatkin of San Rafael.
Burial will be in Seattle, where Susan was born. A memorial service will be held on Feb. 12 at 10 a.m. in Stewart Memorial Chapel of San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo.
Her father, a second year seminary student, has requested that tributes be in the form of donations to a Susan Agee memorial fund for the First Presbyterian Church in San Anselmo, where the child attended Sunday School.

Novato Hospital Construction Permit Voted

The Novato General Hospital Corp., an organization of private physicians, today secured a use permit for construction of a hospital on a 7.46-acre site at Canyon road and Hill avenue, Novato.

Approval, subject to review of architectural plans, was by unanimous vote of the Marin County Planning Commission on motion of Commissioner James Cuzner of Novato.

DELAY URGED

Delay of approval until Feb. 16 was urged by B. D. Dobbs of the commission's staff, who expressed concern about traffic problems which might be created by a hospital.

But Edward Grundstrom, Novato attorney representing the corporation, termed the matter one of "great urgency and expediency," and Cuzner said no useful purpose would be served by a delay.

PRIVATE FINANCING

Dr. Ralph J. Weseman of the hospital corporation said the proposed 25 to 30 bed institution will be privately financed and owned. He stressed that it has nothing to do with any bond issue or the movement for withdrawal of Novato from the Marin County Hospital District.

Dobbs, in a written report, said the Novato corporation may eventually become a non-profit organization, "and the possibility does exist that it (the proposed hospital) will be included in a hospital district if the North Marin area should become divorced from the general hospital district."

OPTION TO BUY

The corporation holds an option to buy the site from Novato builder John Novak. Grundstrom submitted a petition signed by 89 residents of the surrounding area who expressed approval of the hospital proposal.

Directs of the county hospital district have yet to set a public hearing on the proposed secession of Novato.

Two Women Take Overdose Of Pills

Two young women in their 20s were taken to San Rafael General Hospital during the weekend, suffering from effects of barbiturates.

Saturday night, Miss Barbara Banks, of House 511, Marin City, went to Marin General Hospital and was then transferred to a bed at San Rafael General Hospital.

Sheriff's Deputy M. L. Baker said the girl was in no condition to speak, but he learned she may have taken five sleeping pills. She was sent home today.

Mrs. Patricia Slayton, 25, of 104 Laverne avenue, Tamalpais Valley, was taken to the hospital by ambulance yesterday afternoon. Her husband, Keith, found her ailing and called the doctor, who in turn sent for the ambulance. She was suffering from the effects of barbiturates. Slayton owns a hearing aid shop in San Rafael.

FRENCH

It may be some time before he will recover from the results of that "luck."

Capt. A. R. Behnke Jr., Navy recompression expert who worked with young French during the Marin youth's 48 hours in the Hunter's Point recompression chamber, said today: "This is a serious case. Any further prognosis will have to come from French's own doctor, who is taking over when he leaves the chamber."

When Jimmy fell unconscious on the deck of the Jolly Roger and the skipper radioed for help, the Coast Guard dispatched a rescue boat from Monterey. French was examined at the Naval Air Facility at Monterey. Physicians there called the Army at Ft. Ord for a helicopter. It was dispatched promptly, to rush French to Hunter's Point.

There he was placed in the recompression chamber aboard a Navy barge and the pressure raised to that which it would be at a 165-foot depth in the ocean. Very slowly, it was reduced again, while Captain Behnke worked on his patient.

French's father, auto dealer J. E. French of San Francisco, visited the barge, along with the youth's diving companions from the skin divers' club.

French, who is unmarried, lives at 292½ Butterfield road, San Anselmo.

Trio Jailed For Spotlight Hunting

The carcass of a 40-pound doe, its head missing, was confiscated from a station wagon in San Rafael this morning, and three motorists jailed on suspicion of spotlight shooting of deer and having a loaded gun in their car.

Harvey Lee Hughes, 37, and Paul Wade, 35, both carpenters from Oakland, were in jail awaiting arraignment later today. Wade's stepson, 16, who was driving the station wagon, was sent to Marin Juvenile Hall.

Officers Eugene Frederick and Leo Schwab turned their flashlights on the rear of the station wagon on Irwin street and found the deer carcass. Beneath the front seat was a loaded .22 caliber rifle. Two boxes of ammunition were in the glove compartment.

Officers said the men admitted they spotlighted the doe and shot it south of Petaluma.

Matches Burn Woman

Mrs. Frances Craig, 27, of 135 Via Lerida, Greenbrae, suffered second degree burns on her left palm last night when a book of matches ignited in her hand. She was given emergency treatment at Marin General Hospital.

S.F. Woman Believed Dead In Bridge Leap

A 53-year-old San Francisco woman, ill for several months with chronic headaches, was listed as a probable suicide after her car was found abandoned yesterday near the north tower of the Golden Gate Bridge.

The California Highway Patrol said Mrs. Rose Vale Brock, wife of a jewelry manufacturer's agent, apparently leaped to her death from the span. The Coast Guard made an unsuccessful search for her body.

CHP Officer Charles O. Woodworth said the key to the abandoned car was left in the ignition. The vehicle was parked by a winch that Mrs. Brock may have used as a step to scale the bridge railing, Woodworth said.

A purse containing Mrs. Brock's driver's license was found in the front seat of the car. Scuff marks were discovered in dirt on the sidewalk and bridge rail, officers reported.

The woman's husband, Perry L. Brock, told San Francisco

police he awoke about 4:30 a.m. yesterday to find his wife was gone. On a table by her bed was a note which said: "My Dearest—Please forgive me. I just don't seem to be able to snap out of this."

Brock said chronic blinding headaches had caused his wife to become depressed over the past few months. He said nothing she did seemed to relieve the pain. The Brocks have one son, Malcolm.

Highway patrolmen listed Mrs. Brock as the 68th "probable" suicide from the Golden Gate Bridge. There have been 184 known death leaps.

3 Injured In Crash On Bridge Approach

Three persons, including a Ross physician's wife, were taken to hospitals after a three-car smashup in the Funston Tunnel approach to the Golden Gate bridge at 11:35 a.m. yesterday.

The crash tied up traffic for 45 minutes.

Jack Bobrow, 48, San Francisco painting contractor, was driving north in a pickup truck. His truck struck the side of the tunnel and careened into the southbound lanes. It struck the side of a car in which Frank R. Leong, 41, San Francisco salesman, was riding with his wife and two children, then ricocheted into the side of the southbound convertible driven by Mrs. Marion Diller, 41, wife of Dr. Theodore Diller of Lagunitas road, Ross, the California Highway Patrol reported.

SEVERELY CUT

Mrs. Diller suffered severe face cuts and a split lip. All three drivers were treated at Park Emergency Hospital, then Mrs. Diller was transferred to Mt. Zion Hospital, where she remained today, and Bobrow was taken to San Francisco City Hospital. Leong's wife and children were shaken up but did not require treatment. Bobrow and Mrs. Diller were alone in their vehicles.

Five-year-old Thomas Odeto, riding his bicycle on Butterfield road in Sleepy Hollow, was struck by a car and suffered a head injury Saturday afternoon. He was reported in good condition today at Marin General Hospital.

Driver of the car was Frank Matthews, 35-year-old tree surgeon who lives at the Blue Rock Hotel in Larkspur.

The boy was weaving back and forth in the southbound lane in front of the car, according to the California Highway Patrol. Tommy is a son of Hugo and Dorothy Odeto of 281 Fawn drive, Sleepy Hollow.

THROWN FROM CAR

A 39-year-old San Rafael wine salesman was thrown from his car as it overturned early yesterday on the San Geronimo-Nicasio road about two miles south of Lucas Valley road.

Horace Wilnot Hosmer Jr., of 101 Woodlane avenue, San Rafael, escaped with a cut chin. He was given emergency treatment at Ross General Hospital.

Hosmer was southbound at 2:40 a.m. when he lost control of his car on a curve, the Highway Patrol reported.

HITS ROAD SIGN

A 36-year-old San Francisco man, Robert James Reid, also suffered a cut chin when his car rammed a road sign at the south end of the San Rafael overhead of Highway 101 at 3 a.m. yesterday.

Reid told San Rafael Police Officer Eugene Frederick he was on his way to visit relatives in Sonoma County and fell asleep at the wheel. He received emergency treatment at San Rafael General Hospital.

CAR ROLLS OVER

Lois Jean Rutherford, 25, of 56 Plaza drive, Alto, was treated for bruises and abrasions at San Rafael General Hospital after the car she was driving rolled over on a curve of Sir Francis Drake boulevard East near San Quentin at 7:10 p.m. Saturday. The car rested on its top. The young woman was cited by CHP Officer V. C. Weimer for speeding.

Wilhelm Anton Schneider, 34, of 659 Magnolia avenue, Larkspur, pulling out from a parking place in his pickup truck, collided with an east-bound car on College avenue near Drake boulevard in Kentfield, according to the CHP.

Schneider was cited for making an unsafe start from a parked position. His wife, Ludmilla, 30, suffered minor injury but refused emergency treatment. His pickup truck hit a sportscar convertible driven by John Francis Clinton, 48, commercial fisherman of 3 Coronet avenue, Mill Valley.

A 52-year-old Watsonville woman, Mrs. J. L. Paine, suffered minor injury as a passenger in one of three cars which collided in the southbound lanes of Highway 101 near the north end of the San Rafael overhead.

She was a passenger in a car driven by Harry Frederick Paine, 62, of Berkeley. Drivers of the other two cars were George Wilbur Odenbaugh, 40, of Napa, and Elmer O'Shaughnessy, 56, a San Francisco fireman. O'Shaughnessy was at the county jail on a drunken driving charge.

2 Bills Would Benefit Correctional Officers

Passage of two bills designed to benefit correctional officers at San Quentin and other state prisons is being advocated at the current session of the Legislature by Vern Hoffman, former state senator from Lodi.

The bills would give correctional officers a 10 per cent pay adjustment and reclassify them in a hazardous duty category. Hoffman represents the California Correctional Officers Assn. formed at San Quentin in 1957.

LAW IN ACTION

If It's Written In Contract, It Counts

(This column, prepared by California lawyers, appears regularly in the Independent-Journal.)

Everybody rightfully gets eloquent over our freedoms of speech and religion, but few do so over the right of contract.

"Contract" suggests a stuffy document full of "whereases." Yet every Californian has made hundreds of contracts; he buys groceries, hires a baby sitter, subscribes to a paper. All are contracts.

WHAT IT IS

A contract is merely an enforceable agreement between two or more parties to do or not to do something.

Most contracts are not in writing. When you tell the gasoline station attendant to "fill 'er up" you've made yourself a binding contract to pay for the gas.

But some contracts by state law must be in writing, for instance contracts to sell land, or a car.

HARD TO PROVE

Even if the law does not call for a given contract to be written, it is prudent to write out the terms. Word of mouth contracts are hard to prove, easy to forget, and make for misunderstandings and hard feelings.

Remember in writing a contract to put it all in writing, every promise or provision. Don't be led astray by such remarks as "We don't have to put that in, it's understood anyway."

IS IT WRITTEN?

If you have to sue, the court will look only at written words, and only in rare cases will it allow you to prove that important provision by evidence outside the document.

Don't sign a blank contract. See that all its terms and requirements are fully understood and that they are written in black and white. Never rely on the other person's say-so. Above all, don't let anybody rush you or say that you don't need to read what you are signing. Nobody can do much for you after you've signed. But your lawyer can help you avoid trouble. Consult him always before you sign an important paper.

FAILS DRIVING TEST 12 TIMES KEEPS TRYING

LONDON (UPI) — Derek Brown claimed in the Sunday Pictorial that he has driven 100,000 miles in the past 22 years but still can't pass Britain's driving test.

He's taken it 12 times and failed every time.

"It has become a fetish with me," he said. "I'm determined to pass, however long it takes."

Novato Boy Runs Away Second Time

A 15-year-old Novato boy, who ran away from home on Thursday because he was afraid he would flunk a Novato High School French test, was returned home only to take off Saturday night in a stolen car.

He landed in the Monterey County juvenile hall yesterday after he was stopped in the car of Russell G. Bond of Petaluma, 40-year-old bus driver, who had left it parked in a lot near the Novato bus depot.

The boy's earlier runaway venture was made with a companion. The two took a freight train to Vallejo and walked to Fairfield. They had taken a .32 caliber pistol because they said they "might need it to shoot small game for eating."

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels and selected issues held gains as the stock market drifted into irregularity late this afternoon. Turnover was fairly active.

Volume for the day was estimated at 3,500,000 shares compared with 3,600,000 Friday.

Gains and losses of most key stocks went from fractions to about a point.

An exception was Pitney-Bowes which kept about four of a five-point jump. Goodyear had a sinking spell, dropping about three.

The steels rose, Lukens adding about three and Youngstown Sheet more than a point. Gains by U.S. Steel, Bethlehem, Republic and Jones and Laughlin ranged from fractions to a point.

A number of the lower-priced issues continued active. Weibull and Graham-Paige advanced. Calahan mining was about unchanged. Mohasco easy.

MARIN CLASSES CONTINUE

Rovere Censured By Bridge League Board

Suspension of Ernest Rovere, acid-tongued but popular contract bridge teacher, by the American Contract Bridge League would make no difference to his courses at the Marin Jewish Community Center, director Irving Newman of the center declared today.

The executive committee of the bridge league's western conference recommended yesterday that Rovere be suspended from the league for three years. If the national board of the league approves the recommendation, it would mean ouster of Rovere as head of the Bay Area unit of the organization and as a member of the national executive board.

Rovere is to start another 14-week bridge course at the Jewish Community Center at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

"He has been with us for six years and we think he's a tremendous teacher," said Newman. "We don't know what his beef is with the Contract League, and we don't really care."

Ironically, the hearing which resulted in the ouster decision was presided over by Dr. C. F. Crossley Jr. of San Rafael, who conducts Wednesday night bridge tournaments at the Jewish Community Center. Crossley is chairman of the executive committee of the Contract Bridge League's western conference.

The executive committee announced Rovere had been found guilty of trying to undermine the western conference by pulling Northern California bridge players out of it. He did this, the committee found, by intimidating league members, making misstatements about the conference and using his office for "personal aggrandizement."

Rovere contended he had favored withdrawal of the Bay Area from the western conference to give local bridge units a greater share of tournament receipts.

"I'll ask a review by the national board," he said. "Most of the members already are extremely displeased at the actions of the western conference."

Crossley said of the executive committee's decision, "We took the strongest action possible."

The committee held hearings on Rovere from 1 p.m. Saturday until 1 a.m. yesterday, then resumed them before noon, heard four more witnesses, and deliberated.

Tiburon Firehouse Gets Royal Dedication

Tiburon Fire Protection District residents Saturday afternoon enjoyed an old-time firehouse dedication celebration with speeches, band concert, refreshments and a tour of the newly remodeled Tiburon boulevard fire station.

But the kids had the biggest thrill of all.

At 11 a.m., three highway patrolmen escorted a siren-blowing five fire truck parade throughout the district, with Fire Chief Jack Ishmael leading the new $23,500 truck. Children were massed on all five trucks with volunteer firemen guarding them. The demand for rides was so great that Ishmael ordered "all kids to have at least one ride." Volunteers kept the trucks rolling until 4 p.m.

RIDES FOR ALL

Richard M. Sims, municipal court judge and Tiburon resident, was master of ceremonies at the 2 p.m. official dedication program, which was highlighted by a tribute to Howard O. Douglass, termed "the communications nerve center of the Tiburon Fire Department" by Fire Commissioner Howard I. McGill.

DISPATCHER HONORED

Douglass, a paraplegic confined to his wheelchair in his Tiburon home, was brought to the ceremonies in the new fire truck.

"Douglass is on duty 24 hours daily as dispatcher for the department and is known throughout the ham radio world by his call W6OZC," McGill said.

Commission Chairman Eugene E. Trenam outlined the growth of the department from 12 men in 1941 to the present 28 men, five trucks and two rescuers.

"This building will take care of the future paid fire department expected for the district," Trenam said. "Dormitories will be constructed on the upper floor."

"When the Paradise drive-Trestle Glen substation is built, district fire rates will be decreased again."

Introduced by Judge Sims were fire officials from Belvedere, Sausalito, Marinwood, Terra Linda, San Anselmo, San Rafael, Ross, Kentfield, Fairfax, Marin County, Treasure Island and State Firemen's Assn. and County Supervisor Vera Schultz.

An adult trip to the snow country is planned for the weekend of Feb. 28, he announced, with reservations closing February 17.

Francisco Blvd. Pump Bids To Be Opened

San Rafael city councilmen will open bids tonight on a $40,000 drainage pump to relieve floods in the Francisco boulevard-Second street area. The council meeting is set for 8 o'clock in the city hall.

The pumping plant will be adjacent to the sanitation plant next to the municipal parking lot. The pump will catch the waters from the Third street storm drain and pump it into the canal during high tides when gravity flow will not carry it out.

Bids will also be opened on a new street sweeper estimated to cost $10,000.

Other items on the agenda include:

Final action on rezoning of Sunnyview Terrace Unit 3. The change will be from garden apartments with a 9,000 foot per unit restriction to a straight garden apartment zoning.

Little League wants to use the ball park next to the municipal parking lot for the 1959 season.

The city clerk will be asked to start making plans for the general municipal election set for Monday, April 13.

Mill Valley Lions Aid School For Retarded Children

A dozen Mill Valley Lions Club members swooped down on the Marin County School for Retarded Children yesterday and did projects ranging from building new cupboards to putting youngsters' toy trains on the track.

Mrs. Lillian Anderson, teacher, said the Lions built needed bookcases, shelves, pinning boards with their own lumber and board and topped the day off by taking with them a television repair bill incurred by the school.

"It was beautiful to see what a dozen men could do in one day," Mrs. Anderson said.

The Lions Club delegation was led by Fred Bitgood of Mill Valley. The school is located at 27 Meadow drive, Mill Valley.

22 U. S. Leaders Ask Big Three For A-Test Ban

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Twenty-two prominent scientists, clergymen, editors and business and labor leaders, have called on the United States, Russia and Britain to ban atomic tests even if there is a risk of cheating.

In identical letters to President Eisenhower, Russian Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan the group said "there are elements of risk in any agreement."

"But," they said, "the risks of continuing the arms race indefinitely are even greater."

The letters were signed by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, Socialist Norman Thomas; Joseph E. Beirne, president of the Communications Workers Union; James B. Carey, president of the Electrical Workers Union; Norman Cousins, editor of the Saturday Review; atom scientist Ralph Lapp; Robert R. Nathan, chairman of Americans for Democratic Action and others.

Braves Bid For Yank Infielder

NEW YORK (UP)—The Milwaukee Braves are trying to acquire second baseman Bobby Richardson from the New York Yankees as a replacement for Red Schoendienst, United Press International learned today.

Neither team would confirm it is conducting trade negotiations, but Milwaukee Manager Fred Haney revealed that a deal might be on the fire at last night's annual dinner of the New York Chapter of the Baseball Writers Assn. of America.

"Last year Casey Stengel (Yankee manager) followed me around," Haney said. "Now I'm following him around. I see where they have a new assistant general manager, so maybe we can make a deal."

Schoendienst is undergoing treatment in a St. Louis Hospital for tuberculosis. He isn't expected to return to the Braves until next year—if at all—so the National League champions have turned to their World Series conquerors for help.

Stengel, as usual, stole the show at the writers' dinner.

At one point during his witty speech, the Yankee manager turned to honored guest, Francis Cardinal Spellman, and declared:

"They offer 100-grand to 150-grand to some young kids starting out in baseball today. Just think, your eminence, if they offered you that to start out."

Other key Stengel comments:

Regarding the Yankees: "They're great . . . but some day some one is going to catch 'em."

Regarding baseball writers: "They can't get Stengesele all summer, but they knew what-inhell I was talking about a few days ago. (An obvious reference to Stengel's attack on Yankee players last week.)"

Regarding franchise shifts: "I see the (New York) mayor ain't here. The (New York) governor ain't here. Maybe that's why this city lost two ball clubs."

Norcal Teams Resume Play

Northern California college basketball teams resume full-schedule play this week following mid-term exams and brief vacations.

Tonight's schedule sends Humboldt State to St. Mary's, Cal Aggies to Whittier, Pasadena College to Chico and Regis (Denver) to Fresno State.

California beat Santa Clara 66-55 Saturday, San Jose State downed San Diego 48-39, San Francisco State beat Humboldt State 49-41, Sacramento State trimmed Chico State 65-56 and Occidental thumped Cal Aggies 101-59.

Santa Clara, tied for third in the West Coast Athletic Conference, never led or tied, but once got within one point of Cal, its Pacific Coast Conference opponent, 51-50.

The Broncos' George Gardiner netted 18 points for high-score honors. Denny Fitzpatrick sank 16 for the Cal Bears.

San Jose led all the way against San Diego State, grabbing a 23-7 lead once in the first half.

Al Simon of San Jose and Blake Neal of San Diego shared high point honors with 12 each. The victory broke a six-game San Jose losing streak.

Turley Honored As Player Of '58

NEW YORK (UP)—Pitcher Bob Turley of the New York Yankees was honored last night as 1958 "Player of the Year" at the annual dinner of the New York chapter of the Baseball Writers' Assn.

WILLIE HOPPE

Billiard King Willie Hoppe Dies At 71

MIAMI (UP)—Willie Hoppe, undisputed king of billiards, died in a sun-lit hospital room yesterday after personally willing his magic cue sticks to a friend of by-gone years.

Hoppe, 71, ruled the billiards world during the "Golden Era" of sports. He won 51 world championships during 47 glory-packed years.

His doctor said he apparently was the victim of a gastric hemorrhage, but he had been in bad health for years and was hospitalized since Sept. 18 following a heart attack.

Businessman Albert Hoppe of Miami, his brother, said the colorful billiards ace seemed in good spirits Saturday, but took a turn for the worse that night. One of his last visitors was Sidney Mayer of Chicago, a road paving firm executive and a friend of years.

Mayer said Hoppe's hands, which brought him his first world's title at the age of 18, were shaky and unsteady.

"He told me he didn't think he would be able to handle a cue stick again," Mayer said. "He said he wanted me to have them."

Hoppe's brother confirmed that the prized cue sticks would be given to Mayer in keeping with the bedside wish.

PHILADELPHIA FUNERAL

The body will be sent to Philadelphia for burial at White Marsh Memorial Park. Services will be held either Wednesday or Thursday at St. John's Roman Catholic Church. In addition to his brother, survivors include a son, William F. Jr. of Sonoma, Calif., and a daughter, Alice, also in California.

Hoppe won his first world's title in 1906, dethroning Maurice Viganus, known as the "Lion of France," at Paris. He won his last in 1952, when he captured the three-cushion world crown at San Francisco.

His audiences includes presidents, kings and ranking members of the world society who marveled at his quick skill and keen eye. He once played a command performance at the White House, in 1911, for President William Howard Taft.

Oddly, however, Hoppe always insisted his first real love was not billiards, but baseball.

"I really wanted to be a professional baseball player," Hoppe told newsmen last summer. "My father wanted me to be a billiard player."

NEW WORLD RECORD

Sky's Limit For Hi-Jump Phenom

NEW YORK (UP)—Two years ago, when he was 15 years of age, John Thomas had trouble clearing 6 feet in the high jump.

Today, the gangling Boston University freshman is one of the world's five 7-foot jumpers, holds the world's indoor record and very well could go up to 7-4 by the 1960 Olympics.

Young John, who stands 6-4 3/4, still is developing. In less than a year, he has grown an inch and three-quarters. He hasn't reached his potential yet.

In his past three competitions, he has broken the world's indoor record each time. First, he made 6-11. That erased Ken Wiesner's mark of 6-10 3/4.

Next time out, he upped his week-old standard to 6-11 3/4. And Saturday in the Millrose

FANS CHIP IN $200 TO PAY CEPEDA'S FINE

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (UP)—Fans of Orlando Cepeda, San Francisco Giants first baseman, chipped in last night and paid a $200 fine he was assessed for throwing a ball at spectators during a game a week ago.

President Carlos Garcia Noceda of the Puerto Rican Baseball League had notified Cepeda, who plays winter ball with the Santuces club, to pay the fine before Sunday night's game—or else. Noceda said failure to pay would bring the risk of suspension for the remainder of the season and being declared ineligible for the Caribbean Series at Caracas.

Cochran Recalls Highlights Of Hoppe's Career

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Willie Hoppe, who died in Miami yesterday, won some of his greatest billiard triumphs here.

Welker Cochran, one of the few men to defeat Hoppe during the height of his career, declared at his home in Belmont:

"He (Hoppe) will go down in billiard history as the greatest player of them all."

Cochran and Hoppe were tournament and exhibition opponents for 35 years. Cochran was the three cushion champion of the world in 1933, 1935, 1937 and 1938, but lost to Hoppe in the challenge match for the title in 1944.

Cochran recaptured the title from Hoppe in another challenge match the following year.

"We traveled from coast to coast for 35 years, but sometimes it seems like a million," said Cochran. He summed up his estimation of his longtime adversary with the words, "a wonderful player and a nice guy."

Cochran retired from tournament play in the late 1940's, but operated the 952 Club, the scene of Hoppe's final victory, until a few years ago.

It was in Cochran's billiard salon on Market street that Hoppe defeated the Japanese star, Kinrey Matsuyama, for the three cushion title in 1952. Hoppe retired later that year.

Brown told the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette he was disappointed over what he called suggested rental fees for use of a proposed municipal stadium in Pittsburgh. He said the suggested fee was $300,000 a year and no share in concessions.

The general manager said New York interests have made an exceedingly attractive offer.

Games in Madison Square Garden he became the first high jumper in history to get over 7 feet indoors.

At the moment, Yuri Stepanov of Russia holds the outdoor world record of 7-1 with the aid of a built-up shoe. That certainly is within reach of Thomas and, as a matter of fact, he came mighty close to clearing 7-1 1/4 Saturday night.

"I don't want to predict anything for myself," said John, an unassuming lad. "I'm just going to keep on jumping and see what happens."

His next effort will be in the Boston AA Games this week and he'll be up against Charlie Dumas, the world's first 7-footer whom he licked in the Millrose meet, and Richard Dahl, the European champion who has cleared 6-11 1/4.

Pole vaulter Don Bragg came close to grabbing some of the spotlight from Thomas. The big Vallanov graduate got over 15-6 1/2, and barely missed at 15-9, which would have wiped out Dutch Warmerdam's 15-year-old world indoor record of 15-8 1/2.

Ron Delany won his 26th straight mile race hitting the tape in 4:06.5.

Jordan To Defend Title Against Akins On March 6

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Welterweight Champion Don Jordan will defend his title against Virgil Akins March 6 in St. Louis.

Jordan's manager, Don Neseth, said yesterday the contract for the return bout already had been signed and mailed to Akins' manager, Bernie Glickman.

Jordan wrestled the title from Akins, of St. Louis, when he decided him here Dec. 5.

Each fighter in the title bout will receive 30 per cent, Neseth said. The match also will be nationally televised, he added, with $50,000 for the TV rights.

Bucs Reject Bid To Move To N.Y.

PITTSBURGH (UP)—General Manager Joe L. Brown says his Pittsburgh Pirates have no desire to move to another city, but their financial operation must be on a reasonable basis. The club has an offer to move to New York.

Brown told the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette he was disappointed over what he called suggested rental fees for use of a proposed municipal stadium in Pittsburgh. He said the suggested fee was $300,000 a year and no share in concessions.

The general manager said New York interests have made an exceedingly attractive offer.

Davis Cup Team Gives Exhibition

HONOLULU (UP)—American Davis Cup tennis players put on an exhibition at Pearl Harbor yesterday before a crowd of some 1,200 servicemen and their dependents.

Earl Buchholz of St. Louis downed Chris Crawford of Piedmont, Calif., 6-2 and Alex Olmedo of Los Angeles topped Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio 6-4.

Olmedo and MacKay teamed to grab an 11-9 victory in a doubles set.

SAN DIEGO OPEN Furgol Bags First Title In 5 Years

SAN DIEGO (UP)—The 1959 gold rush of the golfing brigade in California was over today, with Marty Furgol the latest to hit pay dirt and Art Wall Jr., carrying the most loot.

Furgol, a 41-year-old veteran from Lemont, Ill., came from behind in the last nine holes to win the $20,000 San Diego Open yesterday, with rounds of 70-71-64-69—274—14 strokes under par. The win gave him $2,800 and his first tournament victory in five years.

The money championship goes to Wall, who in one month raked in $11,965.53 He won $6,000 in the Bing Crosby clam-bake.

Wall's 278 put him way down the list of finishers. But it netted him another $610.

The windup was hectic and but for a brilliant shot off the tee by Furgol, the show could easily have gone into a six-way tie and a playoff for top money.

Furgol's last big win was in the National Celebrities in Washington, D.C., in 1954. Using borrowed clubs, he drove to the green, banked by crowded bleachers. The ball landed 12 feet from the cup. All he needed was two putts to get his par three and the spoils. He got the three.

Just a few moments before 23-year-old Dave Ragan of Chattanooga, Tenn., had blown a chance to tie or possibly win. He drove to the 18th green and the ball landed in the bleachers.

The former University of Florida star, a pro since 1956, pitched out but left himself a putt of 12 or 15 feet. He couldn't make it and took a bogey four.

Ragan's par 72 threw him into a 5-way tie in a group which included Mike Souchak, newly-wed Joe Campbell of Knoxville, Tenn., Bo Winger of Odessa, Tex., and Billy Casper of Apple Valley, Calif. Their consolation—$1,320 apiece.

Bob Harris, Winnetka, Ill., formerly of San Jose State College, finished alone at 276. The 277 group included Fred Hawkins, Jack Burke Jr., Bob Duden, Doug Sanders and Bob Rosburg.

The also-rans included Arnold Palmer at 288. It was Palmer's first out-of-the-money play since last May.

Today the pros headed for sunny Arizona and the next stop on the money-trail, the $17,500 Phoenix Open.

Trainer Says Hillsdale A Good Bet To Beat 'Table'

ARCADIA (UP)—Indiana-bred Hillsdale, fresh from a hair-breadth victory in the $177,150 Santa Anita Maturity, today pointed toward a second meeting with the great Round Table.

And Hillsdale's trainer says a 19-pound weight advantage gives the C.W. Smith colt an excellent chance to make it two in a row over racing's all time money winner.

Next definite meeting between them is the mile and one quarter Santa Anita Handicap Feb. 28.

Hillsdale had a 15-pound advantage when he beat Round Table by a neck in the seven furlong San Carlos.

For the Santa Anita 'cap, Round Table has been assigned 132 pounds to Hillsdale's 113. And this, says Hillsdale's trainer Marty Fallon, could easily spell victory for the 4-year-old flyer who has now won six straight stakes.

Robertson Holds Big Scoring Lead

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Oscar Robertson's 44-point performance Saturday night widened the gap between the Cincinnati star and his rivals in the battle for major college basketball scoring honors.

"Big O" boosted his average to 33.3 points as he paced the Bearcats to a 95-87 victory over Wichita in a Missouri Valley Conference game. Robertson held a lead of 3.9 points over his nearest rival.

Nat'l Skate Titles To Heiss, Jenkins

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (P)—"They're both better than ever."

That was the experts' opinion today after lovely Carol Heiss and dynamic David Jenkins each won their third straight national figure skating championships.

The two world champions showed they have every intention of running up their strings in the world championships at the Broadmoore Skating Club in Colorado Springs, Colo., Feb. 24-28.

Carol, of Ozone Park, N.Y., will be after her fourth world crown while Jenkins, of Colorado Springs, will be seeking his third.

The charming 19-year-old blonde captivated the crowd of 5,700 yesterday with a brilliant display of free skating to clinch the championship. Clad in a bright red costume, she truly looked like a ballerina on ice as she glided, leaped and spun to the music of Tchaikowsky.

Carol's 17-year-old sister, Nancy, surprised by finishing second, Barbara Ann Roles, a 17-year-old blonde from Temple City, Calif., took third and Lynn Finnegan, a 16-year-old brunette beauty from Boston, finished fourth.

All four of the girls were named to the team which will compete in the North American championships at Toronto Feb. 6 and 7 and the world championships. Also selected were the first four in the men's singles, and the first three each in the Gold Dance and the Senior Paris.

Jenkins, who captured his crown Saturday will have as his singles teammates arch-rival Tim Brown of Sacramento, Calif.; Robert Brewer of Alhambra, Calif., and Bradley Lord of Swampscott, Mass.

Jenkins didn't know yet whether he would compete at Toronto because of the pressure of studies at Western Reserve University's School of Medicine in Cleveland.

The lithe, 22-year-old crew-cut blond thought he gave his best performance ever here.

The other two titles decided yesterday in the climax of the four-day meet went to the Gold Dance team of Andree and Donald Jacoby of Syracuse, N.Y., and to 14-year-old Gregory Kelley of Newton Center, Mass. in the junior singles.

CO-CAPTAINS FOR CO-CHAMPIONS — The Fifth and Sixth grade half of the first annual Drake Benchwarmers Kids tournament at Drake High in San Anselmo Saturday night ended in the second overtime period with an 8-8 called tie. Each player got a championship award. SPOILS TO THE VICTOR — Pat Murray (left), captain of the victorious Jack's Drugs Ram team in the Seventh and Eighth grade section of the Benchwarmer Kids basketball tournament, holds up his championship medallion. ## Olympic Club Nips Hamilton, 63 To 61

Basketball redhots in the Ross Valley already are blowing the bugles for another gala outing next year such as that Saturday night in Drake High's gym at San Anselmo.

Besides thrilling over the San Francisco Olympic Club's come-from-behind, last-second win over Hamilton Air Force Base, 63-61, the spectators had a good time in the first annual Kids Basketball tournament sponsored by the Drake High Benchwarmers.

Happiest of all were the Benchwarmers, with an estimated $350 profit to help the organization of sports-minded Drake parents support the Drake athletic program and finance the Muriel McCrum scholarship. The latter is named for a beloved former Drake teacher.

In the Kids tournament the fifth and sixth grade section wound up in an 8-8 tie in a second overtime period and a co-championship for both the Sprouse-Reitz 49ers and the LaVillle Foods Eagles.

For the seventh-eighth graders Jack's Drug Store's Rams squelched Schafer's Ice Cream, 11-8 for the title.

In preliminary fifth-sixth grade games Sprouse-Reitz whipped San Anselmo Photo Shop, 10-6 and LaVillle defeated Redhill Nursery, 12-10 in an overtime. In seventh-eighth grade prelims Jack's bowled over Parish Brothers, 26-16 while Schafer's creamed the San Anselmo Lions, 15-8.

The feature game of the evening saw the Olympic Club squeak by Hamilton with the identical score—63-61—they hung up the last time the two clubs met in Marin in December.

For most of the way, however, it looked like the Air Force's evening. The Defenders led by 10 points at the half and by five at the start of the last quarter. Jerry Lewis, Bob Humphrey and Wilson Richards, all cat-quick on the rebounds, were getting most of the balls off the backboards and were stuffing in two-pointers along with Willy Finley and John Woods. Ervin Wright was deadly on jump shots.

The tune changed late in the final period after the Winged O had worked up to a 61-61 stand-off. Ron Tomsic, the 1956 Olympic star, master-minded a shut-out strategy with one minute and 59 seconds to go. Tomsic, a stick-out at dribbling and passing all evening, bounced the ball and passed to his mates for a minute or more. Then, with 30 seconds to go, the Olympians took time out.

With time back in and the Defenders desperately trying for the ball and a chance to get back in the lead the Winged O moved the ball in closer until Burl Plunkett, the ex-Centenary College Little All-American, could get in position for his favorite jump shot. Taking the ball as he moved out to the left of the key Plunkett whirled and flipped—the ball swished through—and the clock showed 0.00.

Plunkett was high scorer for the winners with 16, but was overshadowed by the Defenders' Wright, who had 20 points.

Drawing applause at the half-time was a trampoline act guided by Drake Athletics Director George Corson and starring senior Zeke Bundschu, junior Terry Farber and freshman Rich Bottini.

Hall Starts Army Coaching Job Tomorrow

NEW YORK (P)—Dale Hall has his coming-out here tomorrow as the new head Army football coach after being named to succeed Earl "Red" Blaik.

Hall, a former football star and assistant coach at Army under Blaik, was named to the post Saturday. Blaik announced his retirement 10 days ago, effective February 15, his 63rd birthday.

Hall has served as Army's chief scout and defensive coach for three years and was the man most prominently mentioned to take over the head spot at West Point.

Two other candidates, Jack Green, an assistant coach at Tulane, and Bobby Dobbs, head coach at Tulsa, were interviewed last week by West Point authorities along with Hall. All played for Blaik during the Glenn Davis-Doc Blanchard era.

STAR HALFBACK

Hall was a halfback on the 1944 national championship team and did most of the backfield blocking for Blanchard and Davis. He was also a basketball All-American and was named the best athlete in his class upon graduation in 1945.

He coached an Army continental team to the 1947 European championships, during his four-year tour with an armored cavalry unit. After resigning his commission in 1949, he served as an assistant coach at Purdue, New Hampshire and Florida before coming to Army.

The job of scouting Navy was Hall's chief task on seven Saturdays last season. His efforts paid off in a 22-6 Army victory, capping an undefeated, once-tied season.

Hall indicated that he would keep all of Blaik's assistants, with his own successor to be named later in the spring.

The BULLPEN

With JOHN J. CONNOLLY

Giants Will Play Last 17 Home Games In New Candlestick Park

Do not be surprised if the S.F. Giants are nicely settled in their new ball park before August 1, 1959.

I have it on good authority that the plan now before the Stoneham clan is to play the last 17 games of the home stay at Candlestick Point, or whatever they decide to call the new park.

As I gather the "pitch," it is purely a business twist. The Giant group is free and clear of Seals Stadium the day they move out of the diggings.

They have no lease. They pay only when they play there.

Which brings us up to the fact that if the last 17 games of the season are played in the new ball park, I'll wager 12 of those games are played to sellout crowds.

Selling out 12 games in a park that seats 45,000 would mean a neat 765,000 fans. And add to that what the Giants will draw at home before August 1 and you can easily see why it isn't any great shucks for the S. F. club to wheel in more than a million and a half paid customers in 1959.

And where do you think the people are coming from who go to the Giants park?

Sure, they're coming from San Francisco, Marin County and down the Peninsula as far as Monterey.

NOW IF you think the ordinary run of the mind fan can step out to the Giants park any day and buy a box seat, you're mistaken.

Big business has gobbled up all the box seats and most of the choice reserve seats, so that the ordinary baseball fan is lucky to get a good seat, unless he deals with somebody who has a load of box seats.

Big business is making professional sports events wealthy because they can write it off as business expense. You and I and the guy next door can't take it off our income tax unless we have a smart income tax expert. Which most of us do not have.

But what I am trying to tell you is that if you are a likker store guy, struggling along to make ends meet, just deal with a big distiller and the distillery will send you box seats free. If you happen to have a "hash house" and buy meat off the Del Monte Meat Company just tell them you'd like four tickets for the game on such and such a date and you'll get 'em. But don't change meats in the meantime.

INSURANCE companies, meat companies, construction companies, all the big business houses, get first call on the choice seats because they can afford to lay out $3,000 or $4,000 in advance for the du-cats.

The little guy, (and baseball needs them), can't expect to buck the tiger against those odds. He's happy to get a reserved seat without having to buy more than a pair.

It wasn't long ago that organized baseball was in such a sorry state that door prizes such as automobiles, etc. were given to lure the fans into the park.

THE LATE William Wrigley Jr. even allowed women to the ball park free of charge.

So along the trail, back and forth across the country, we find baseball back again as the mighty empire of old.

Baseball owes something to the fans. The players should think of that when they put the gouge and the bite on management, so that in turn management has to "pitch it back" to the cash customer.

Why can't management and the players strike a happy medium so that the playing public which, for the most part is the working stiff, can imbibe freely without hurting?

Roll Up Sleeves; Demo Leaders Demand Space Director Tells Americans

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Dr. T. Keith Glennan, director of the National Space Administration, warned today that Americans must "roll up our sleeves . . . for years to come" if they hope to catch up with Russia in the race for space.

He told the House Space Committee that time, money and effort must be poured into a sustained U.S. program if this country is to overcome Russia's lead in powerful rocket boosters.

"If our space programs are to be run on an off-again, on-again basis, zigging and zagging with the turn of every new year," he said, "then we'd better spend our money buying telescopes to watch the Russians pioneer in space."

Glennan, first witness at the committee's follow-up hearings on studies held in the Senate last week, gave this resume of U.S. space plans for the immediate future:

1. Hurl a 10-ton space craft into orbit around the earth by 1962.
2. Fire a two-ton space craft "into deep space—far beyond the moon" by the same year.
3. Orbit a 75-ton space craft around the earth by 1965.

Chairman Overton Brooks (D-La.) said in opening the hearings that they are designed to show where the United States stands.

Solon Amends Bill For Industry Unit

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Sen. James A. Cobey (D-Merced) plans to amend Gov. Edmund G. Brown's bill to establish an "economic development agency" to attract new industry to California.

Cobey, who introduced the original bill three weeks ago, said yesterday his revisions would streamline the proposed agency and more clearly define its scope and objectives.

As Cobey sees it, the state agency should help local chambers of commerce, and serve as a clearing house to avoid duplication of effort. It would act upon invitation by local government and business leaders.

Council To Meet In Corte Madera

Other business on the agenda of the 7:30 p.m. meeting at town hall includes review of a Northwestern Pacific Railroad drawing for a pedestrian underpass at the end of Apache road for students at Redwood High School, and possible final adoption of a revised "precise plan" for Paradise drive.

Demo Leaders Demand New Foreign Policy Ideas

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, heading for talks with European allies this week, has been told he'd better come up with some fresh ideas if he wants support from Senate Democrats.

The call for a new approach in dealing with the Soviet Union came from Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.), assistant Democratic Senate leader and a member of the Senate Foreign Relations committee.

'NOTICE SERVED'

Mansfield said today the forthcoming elevation of Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) to the foreign relations chairmanship serves notice on State Department officials "they had better get on their toes."

Dulles has scheduled a meeting with Fulbright before he leaves for Europe. Fulbright has been a sharp critic of Eisenhower administration foreign policies.

U.S. Red Says Communists Jam Our Jails

MOSCOW (AP)—An American Communist told the 21st congress of the Soviet Communist party today that U.S. jails contain many political prisoners. James Jackson, secretary of the National Committee of the U.S. party, told the sixth session of the congress that if President Eisenhower could say that in the United States there is not a single political prisoner, then "many leaders of the Communist and workers movement of the United States would be able to be present here and to greet the delegates of the congress."

Jackson named "many Communists who are languishing in the jails of the United States," a summary of his speech broadcast by Moscow radio said.

Jackson read a message of greeting from the American Communist party leadership.

Another foreign speaker was Khaled Bagdash, head of the Syrian Communist party who fled his country after President Nasser of the United Arab Republic began arresting Syrian Communists.

Smallpox Rages

MACAO (UPI)—A spreading smallpox epidemic in Red China, near this Portuguese China-coast colony, has killed more than 150 children in the past few days, recent arrivals from Red territory said today. They said the epidemic has mushroomed with such speed that authorities are unable to keep up. Bodies have been abandoned in the streets.

TALKS WITH ALLIES

Dulles is tentatively slated to fly to London late tomorrow, with his first round of talks there Wednesday. He will talk with French leaders in Paris and West German leaders in Bonn before returning here about Feb. 11.

Dulles said his European mission will deal with: (1) the problem of Berlin and the Western reaction to possible Soviet moves; (2) the possibility of having talks about Germany with the Soviet representatives.

He indicated he will talk with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan of Britain, President Charles de Gaulle of France and Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany to try to get allied agreement on these points:

1. What the allies can offer Russia, and world public opinion, in the way of new ideas for reuniting Germany and thereby resolving the problem of divided Berlin.
2. What line the Western powers should take in making specific proposals to Moscow for East-West talks on Germany and possibly some other issues.
3. What measures the Western power should take if a new Berlin blockade is set up. The Soviet Union has announced plans to turn over its Berlin occupation powers to the East German Reds in May.

STALLED ON BERLIN? Before the Dulles trip was announced, Fulbright said the administration apparently has stalled on dead center in dealing with the Soviet demand to make West Berlin a free city.

Mansfield said today he and his colleagues will back Fulbright to the hilt in an effort to bring what Mansfield called more flexibility to the administration's handling of international problems.

Party Opposing Franco Policies Formed In Spain

MADRID (AP)—Prominent liberals and rightists have defied Generalissimo Francisco Franco's ban on opposition political movements and formed a new party.

So far there has been no retaliation from the government. Failure to take action would be interpreted as a sign of weakness. All political parties except the government Falange are banned in Spain.

Nearly 100 army officers, bankers, lawyers, university professors and others formed the new party, called Spanish Union—unio espanola—at a banquet Thursday in a Madrid hotel.

Speakers included Joaquin Satrustegui Fernandez, a liberal Monarchist and member of a wealthy family of Basque industrialists and Enrique Tierno Galvan, professor of political law at Salamanca University and head of a group of liberal Republicans.

Satruestegui in a strong speech said Franco had seized power illegally and kept his regime in office by force. He criticized the government's economic policy, saying it was "without present or future."

A manifesto circulated by the party declared:

"Spain has just awakened to her tremendous reality, and fiction begins to fall with all the weight of its coarse and grotesque framework. We believe that what has been said through Satrustegui is not an opinion but the full conscience of a nation clamoring painfully."

The Spanish Union includes elements opposed to the regime ranging from the extreme right to the left. But four non-Communist groups so far are not participating: the Socialists, Anarchists, left wing Christian Democrats headed by Manuel Gimenez Fernandez, and Dionisio Ridruejo's Social Democrats.

Sources close to the new party said they believe a compromise doctrine will be worked out to permit enlistment of the Social and Christian Democrats and possibly the Anarchists.

Lions Club Party: 'Chioppino, Vino'

The annual "Chioppino with Vino" Valentine party of the Corte Madera Lions Club will be held Feb. 14 at 8 p.m. at Corte Madera Recreation Center.

Andrew Vireno, chairman, said the public is invited to the dinner dance. Music will be provided from 10 p.m. to 1 a.m. by the Jack Barnes orchestra. Chef will be John Klieniki.

A STINKING SITUATION

An unsuspecting deputy sheriff, trying to locate a reported rifle shooter in Fernhill Cemetery in Tamalpais Valley, left the door to his patrol car open yesterday.

While he was gone, a skunk walked in and promptly turned the patrol car into the most unpopular one assigned to the sheriff's office.

Despite attempts to wash the floor mat, a very strong and unpleasant odor still pervades the car.

Germany Calls For 4-Power Ministers Meet

BONN, Germany (AP)—The Adenauer government called today for a four-power foreign ministers conference to discuss the German problem in the second half of May.

A government spokesman told a news conference that Bonn proposes the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, France and West Germany hold a special conference of their own during the 10th anniversary meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization in Washington April 2-4.

He said the West's reply to the Soviet peace treaty proposal of an. 10 should be completed at this time and submitted to the full NATO body for ratification.

The foreign ministers meeting with the Soviet Union should follow late in May, he added.

Argentine's President Ends Visit

MIAMI (UPI)—Argentine President Arturo Frondizi ended his history-making U.S. goodwill visit on a symbolic note yesterday by dedicating a new air terminal hailed as an important bridge toward closer U.S.-Latin American relations.

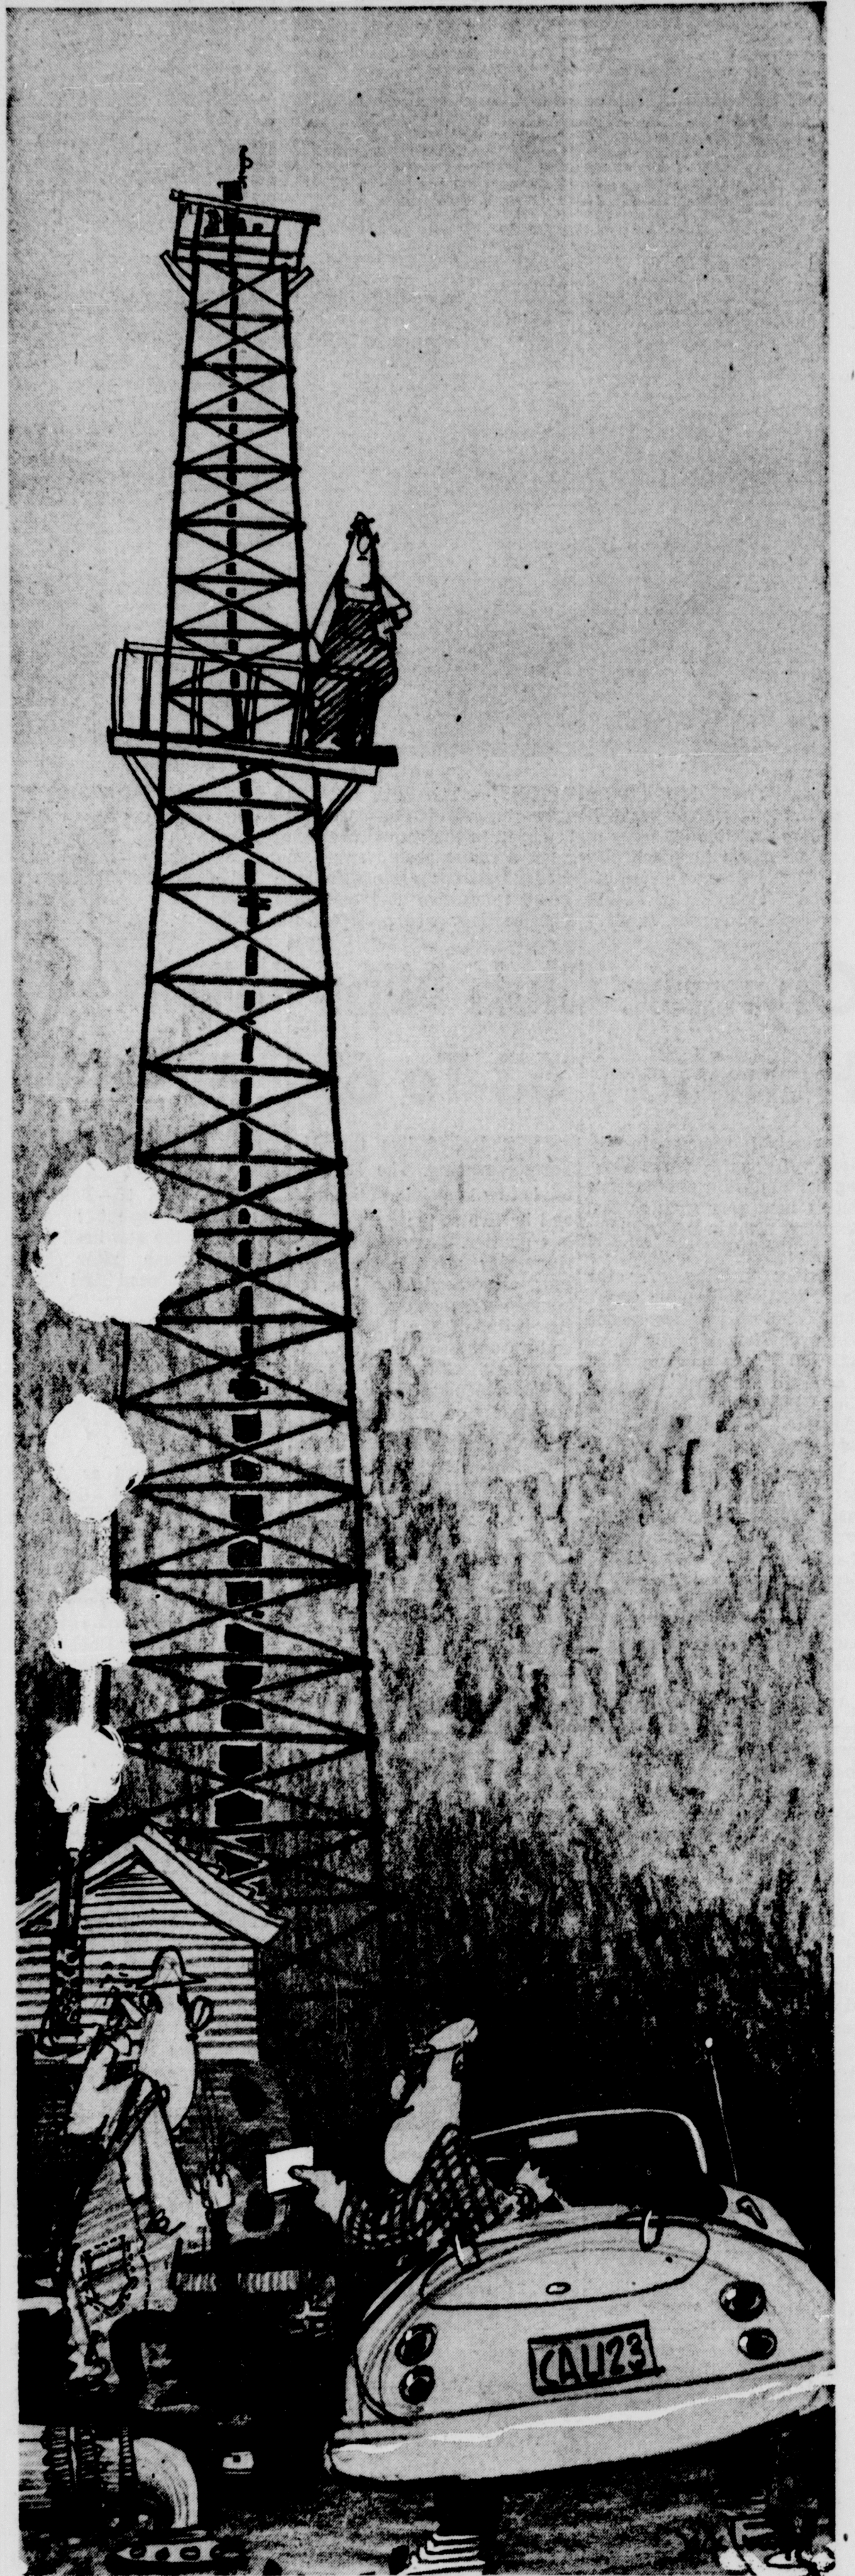

An estimated 8,000—including many Latin Americans—attended the colorful sun-bathed ceremonies to bid Frondizi and his wife farewell.

Speaking through an interpreter, Frondizi expressed pride that the first plane to use officially the 26 million dollar terminal was an Argentine airliner. He called the airport the beginning of a "fraternal bridge" toward closer ties with Latin America.

He said he would forever be like the plane he boarded yesterday—"messenger of peace between nations and fraternity among people."

Frondizi's participation in the dedications ended the first such tour of this country ever made by an Argentine president. After his address, he and Senora de Frondizi walked down a long red carpet and boarded the presidential plane for the return flight to their homeland.

Auxiliary's 'Cinema-Antic' Aid In Buying New Car For Project

Fund-raising, as well as fun-raising, will be "Cinema-Antics," the Social Service Auxiliary theater party to be held Shrove Tuesday, Feb. 10, at 1 p.m. at the Sequoia Theater in Mill Valley.

One thousand women are expected to attend the event, which promises a frivolous, rollicking afternoon, but designed to fill an urgent need.

The Social Service Auxiliary this year has inaugurated several new projects supplementing its well known work assisting Catholic Social Service, a United Crusade agency. Last year, its members provided 12,623 volunteer hours of service covering such fields as welfare; motor corps; sewing; doll and toy collection, repair and renovation, and clerical help.

In addition, this year the Auxiliary is underwriting a Homemaker Service and has two women on call who are paid for this type of work when emergency mother-substitute help or household care is sufficiently dire in cases serviced by Catholic Social Service itself, or cases referred by parish priests or other community agencies.

457 TRIPS

The Auxiliary provides gas and insurance for its Motor Corps which in 1958 made 457 trips with volunteer drivers, supplementing the professional work which can be done only by actual staff members.

"Cinema-Antics" goes on stage and screen to pay for a new car for use by Sister Elfrida, Sister Helena, Sister Lucina and professional staff assistant, Mrs. Katherine Heble, in their agency work.

Another new activity for the Auxiliary this year, in fact a pioneer project even in educational circles, is the work-study program which is being financed by the Auxiliary and set up as a continuing scholarship fund.

This year, its recipient, Sister Lucina, is enrolled in the University of California School of Social Work at Berkeley, working toward her master's degree in social work, attending classes three days a week and assisting in the office two days.

Next year, this ratio will be reversed and her third year will give full-time to the agency and another Sister will start on the graduate program. Only two other agencies in the entire Bay Area are using this work-study program which must be professionally supervised to be acceptable to the University. (One of these is the Catholic Social Service agency in San Francisco.)

NEW ON CALENDAR

"Cinema-Antics," itself, is new on the Auxiliary social calendar, as a fun way of meeting these new needs. It has been made possible through the courtesy of the Blumenfeld Theaters who have made their facilities available, not only on Feb. 10, the performance day, but for myriad preliminary arrangements.

Additional ticket distribution points are being announced in Sausalito as Trade Fair, Klein's TV and the Caledonia Market.

Further committee announcements include Mrs. Edwin Smith, assisting Mrs. Walter Garrett with candy sales, and Mrs. George Collins' theater personnel recruits will include Mesdames Marius Cordone, Clifford Elder, William Seeger, Frances Johnson and John O'Neil. Door prizes, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Clinton T. Duffy, will be all awards in the entertainment field, keyed to the festive mood of the party.

DAR Chapter Presents Flag To Scout Troop

An enthusiastic group met recently at the home of Mrs. Austin W. Lea in Kent Woodlands. The occasion was the presentation of an American flag by El Marinero Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, to Pack 11, Den Two, of the Cub Scouts.

Mrs. Kenneth R. Gregory, program chairman and vice-regent of the chapter, made the presentation, and Ricky Lines, denner for his group, accepted. Mrs. Gregory suggested to the boys that each one try to fly his own flag at home on important American holidays, thus setting an example of patriotism to his neighbors.

The Scouts in uniform were proud to receive El Marinero's gift, a four by five foot flag on its own pole. Ricky led the Pledge of Allegiance to the new flag, with his troop members, Austin Lea Jr., assistant denner, Preston Lea, Art Pierotti, Gerry Keeler, Robert Fortner and Robert Seebach, after which refreshments were served.

Guests present besides Mrs. Gregory were Mrs. Douglas Cowan, flag chairman for El Marinero Chapter, Mrs. Frederick Ullner, den mother, Mrs. E. J. Torney, den co-ordinator, Mesdames Richard E. Mittelstaedt, Arthur Pierotti, C. C. Keeler Jr., Nancy Cowan and Barbara Gregory.

Spring Marks Return Of The Fitted Suit

By GAY PAULEY

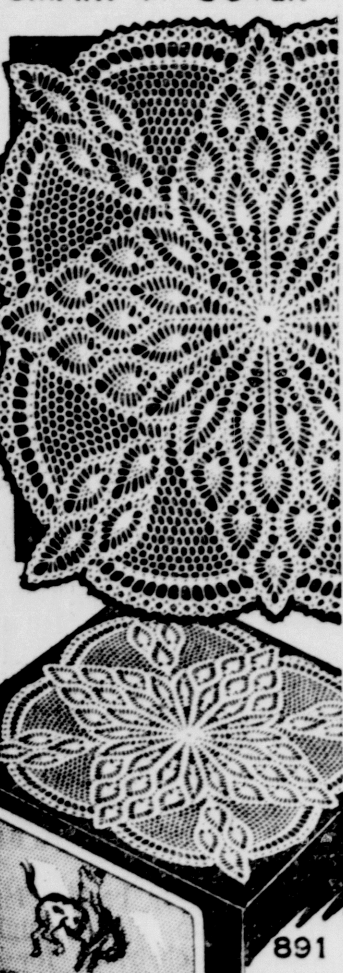

NEW YORK (UPI) — The suit, basic in a woman's wardrobe, gets down to the basics this spring. It fits the figure.

"The relaxed look is on its way out," said designer Harry Frechtel. "This spring marks the beginning of the return to the fitted suit."

Several other designers also are returning — each collection shown to visiting fashion editors this week included at least a couple of suits with slim skirt and jacket hugging the waistline and upper hip-bone. The shows are held semi-annually by the couture group of the New York Dress Institute.

However, there is no return to the broad, padded shoulders that went with fitted suits of the 1930's and early '40's.

Send for a copy of 1959 Laura Wheeler Needlecraft Book. It has lovely designs to order: embroidery, crochet, knitting, weaving, quilting, toys. In the book, a special surprise to make a little girl happy—a cut-out doll, clothes to color. Send 25c for this book.

Rounded, soft shoulders are the rule.

Frechtel suits have perfectly smooth shoulders; he cuts sleeve and bodice of the jacket all in one piece.

Sleeves of suits in most collections are "bracelet length," baring wrists for those women who like bangles. But Monte-Sano and Proulx provides the breeziest sleeve of all; the firm bares arms in both coats and suits to above the elbow.

Most of the new suits are single breasted, but Ben Zuckerman showed some double-breasted jackets closed with enormous buttons in black or a smoky pearl shade.

Fitted jackets are of two main types — one reaching three to four inches below the waist; the other stopping right at the waist. Some of the "relaxed" or looser-fitting jackets do hug the figure in one spot — the hipbone, but leave the waistline undefined.

In the "relaxed" category, the number one jacket is the cardigan type, usually collarless and worn casually unbuttoned. Davidow shows a group in small Scottish checks worn with small, fringed stoles around the neck.

Skirts are cut pencil-slim in most collections, but a few designers toss in a few suits with pleated skirts — Ben Reig is one. Frechtel eases skirt fit with scattered gathers across the tummy.

Watch also for bold colors to brighten the suit picture. Along with standard gray and navy, there are flamingo and watermelon pink, lemon yellow and deep lilac.

Highlights from collections: Harvey Berin—Karen Stark's young-looking designs included shirt-waist dresses; evening dresses witted to the knees then flaring; and cocktail dresses with chiffon skirts, lace tops and matching chiffon cardigans.

Samuel Winston — This firm which always produces some lush new fabrics introduced a printed silk corduroy, used for a short evening dress. Designer Roxane also combined brightly colored cotton coats, of printed pique, with short evening dresses in solid-shade silk chiffon.

Herbert Sondheim — This manufacturer stressed the costume look in chiffon-weight woollens. These consist of skirt with camisole top, brief jacket, and an over-bouse of flowered or dotted silk just covering the camisole section.

Branell—Designer Hilda Altmark likes dresses and suit jackets which mould the true waistline, but as she says, "also lift the eye higher" via a decorative band of contrasting fabric placed under the bosom. Other suit skirts have a built-up, cummerbund top to hug the midriff and are combined with silk linen or flowered silk surah blouses.

Alaska To Be Program Topic For DAR Luncheon, Feb. 11

"Alaska, our new state and new star, the first since 1912," will be the key note of a program to be given by La Puente de Oro Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Wednesday, Feb. 11, 2 p.m. at the Veterans' War Memorial Bldg., Room 308, Civic Center, according to an announcement by the regent, Mrs. Harry C. Elliott of Sausalito.

In the same year that Alaska becomes our 49th state, the National Society of the DAR takes a special pride in welcoming Alaska as a State DAR organization. There are now three chapters in the new state, the Alaska at Fairbanks, the Col. John Mitchell at Anchorage and a new chapter at Juneau.

Through the courtesy of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, the highlight of the afternoon will be an address by Philip R. Bradley of Berkeley, who will review the past 90 years of Alaskan history beginning with the time it was known as Seward's Folly, having cost the magnificent sum of $7,200,000 in 1867.

Bradley has spent the major part of his life in Alaska where his father was director of the Juneau-Alaska Gold Mining Co. He received his early education in the public schools there, graduating from grammar and high, and then returning to Berkeley for university training. Both father and son graduated from University of California. Following in his father's footsteps, Bradley is currently director of the Juneau-Alaska Gold Mining Co., and chairman of the California State Mining Board.

Chairman of the day will be Mrs. Frank R. Bergstreser,

Pretend You Live In A Glass House

NEW YORK (UPI)—If you let your home wait in '58, make it shine in '59, says Paul McCobb, the furniture and industrial designer.

McCobb said this should be the homemaker's top resolution for prettying up the place. He blamed procrastination and indecision for making a "shambles" out of many homes. He explained that "The family hesitates to buy a few things as prominent in DAR circles and a director of the San Francisco Women's Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Guy R. Carpenter is tea chairman, assisted by hostesses Mesdames Etta May Gibbany, Almeria H. Quivey and Ewald F. Treude. Hospitality chairman is Mrs. William Murray Campbell.

they're needed, so the pieces get shabbier and shabbier. Pretty soon they pull the whole room down; even the good pieces take on a shabby look."

McCobb's second resolution: Remember that style is all encompassing. Apply your taste not here and there but everywhere. "Some women spend all their time and money on the living room," said McCobb, discussing his list. "That is the room the visitors see. But good taste can apply to the whole house . . . good looking utensils for the kitchen cost no more than ugly ones. Good design is not necessarily expensive design."

Other resolutions: Pretend you live in a glass house. Look at your own home with a critical eye before you

Un-decorate as you re-decorate. Said McCobb, "You have twice as much furniture and furnishings in your home as you need. Most homeowners' eyes are bigger than their rooms. Don't over-crowd and don't clutter."

Be original, if you would get ahead of the Joneses. Furnish your home so tastefully the Joneses will want to keep up with you. It's more fun than trying to keep up with them.

AAUW Is To Hold Fund-Raising Events

Saturday, Feb. 7 and Tuesday, Feb. 10 are circled on the calendar of all members of Marin Branch of American Assn. of University Women.

These are the dates of the Fellowship Fun (d) Fest—and this year the first $500 dollars raised will be for an International Grant and the remainder donated to the National Building Fund as AAUW is constructing a multi-million dollar headquarters in Washington, D.C.

Three events are planned for members and guest's pleasure.

On Saturday, a dramatic tea with Mrs. Paul O. Sather of Ross as chairman will be held in the Art Lecture Room of the College of Marin, beginning at 2 p.m. and featuring at 3 p.m. the talented Mrs. R. C. Spaan in two light comedy readings. Mrs. Spaan has long delighted the branch and other Marin organizations with the fresh manner of her presentations.

Assisting Mrs. Sather with arrangements will be Mrs. John McGee with decorations and Mesdames Robert Christensen, Robert Smith, and Emil Nelson will provide refreshments.

Mrs. V. W. Jones in whose name the 1958 named International Grant was given will pour at the tea table as will Mrs. L. T. Lamb.

On Tuesday a luncheon will be served in the homes of members previously announced, beginning at 12 noon and followed by cards. Mrs. L. Jay Simon, chairman reports that reservations are coming in rapidly and that Mrs. Daniel L. Strohl with the help of Mrs. Fred Bolding have made tallies and prizes.

The important job of providing food is under the direction of Mrs. Alfred E. Shepperd and her committee.

On Tuesday evening dessert will be served at the homes of several of the members, beginning at 8 p.m.

The evening bridge is planned for both couples and women alone.

Five Bay Area branches of AAUW have been invited and guests will join the local fund-raising events from as far away as the San Mateo-Hillsborough branch.

Mrs. Clyde J. Curley Jr. has been in charge of publicity for the annual event.

Reservations will close tomorrow and any member or friend of the branch wishing tickets to any of the events should contact Mrs. P. G. Cochrane of Kentfield.

Blythedale Lodge Will Participate In Heart Drive

Heart Sunday was the main topic of discussion at the recent meeting of Blythedale Rebekah Lodge No. 305 held in the Mill Valley Odd Fellows Hall.

During the meeting conducted by noble grand Mrs. James Cochran, Mrs. James Williams, vice grand of Golden Star Rebekah Lodge and county chairman for the event, spoke on the need for more helpers for Heart Sunday on Feb. 15.

The newly-elected noble grand, Mrs. Peggy Dahl, is the lodge chairman for the event, and other members supervising areas in Mill Valley will be Mesdames Connie Ford, Anthony Fontes, Paul Hughes and Brownell Carpenter.

Among visitors was Mrs. Charles Peterson of Tamaulipas Lodge 343, district deputy president of District 61, who was escorted to a seat of honor by Mrs. Walter J. Meyer, conductor.

Others were Mrs. Mabel Caulson of Acme Lodge 320 of Portland, Ore., and Mesdames Wayne Coen and Harry Wall of Golden Star Lodge.

After the meeting refreshments were served by Mesdames John Luetke, James Rhoads and Rose Lorenz.

Dredging Of Raccoon Strait Would Be Dangerous Error

At a time when there is much need for funds at all levels of government, it is foolhardy for any one of them to expend money needlessly.

It is even worse when, in so doing, the government will jeopardize not only the pleasure, but the safety of a large number of its citizens.

Yet that is about to happen. The federal government, through its Army Corps of Engineers, is planning to dredge Raccoon Strait, between Tiburon and Angel Island, so as to make it a passageway for oil tankers and other ocean-going vessels.

We don't know how this came about. Certainly there has been no public hearings on it. We understand it was requested during the war—15 years ago.

No one who knows the extensive and constant use to which the strait is put by fishermen and small boat owners would consider such an action. In the narrow channel, with its swift currents, an ocean-going vessel would have no chance to maneuver, even in good weather, among the literally hundreds of boats which use the area. In a fog it's impossible.

In addition, this body of water is the only access to Angel Island State Park, an outing area yet in its infancy. Boats and ferries will be carrying hundreds of picnickers and vacationists across the path of an oil barge or freighter. One accident could more than wipe out any possible advantage the shippers might enjoy.

If there was no alternative, a better case might be made for the dredging. But there is adequate channel and space on the east side of the island, the side where ships have been passing for years. There is room to maneuver there and few small boats to complicate navigation.

The Corps of Engineers has done much, and we're sure will do much more, for small boating in this area. We can't imagine that they would knowingly create such a hazardous situation for the small boater and fisherman. Perhaps, then, they are following orders from Washington, where the real facts might not be known.

We emphatically suggest to the Engineers that any start of dredging be delayed until a second look can be taken at the project. We're sure if a second look is taken, that the dredging orders will be cancelled.

Porch Lights Should Be Burning

The Salk vaccine has proved itself effective against infantile paralysis, but polio isn't licked yet.

Less than half the people of the nation have been inoculated with the preventive vaccine. Much remains to be done (and March of Dimes funds will be needed to do it) before the entire population of the nation is protected as completely as the present vaccine permits.

Then there is the matter of those for whom the new vaccine was not perfected in time — those who suffered crippling paralysis.

New surgical and rehabilitation techniques can do much to alleviate handicaps. Further research can bring more ways to make even more help possible.

But this is an expensive process.

Beyond these polio needs, the National Foundation has elected to continue its research projects which — while leading to the development of Salk Vaccine—also led to valuable new findings about the treatment of other related conditions: birth defects, arthritis and diseases of the central nervous system. These undertakings, too, will cost money.

These are the things to keep in mind tomorrow night when the "Mothers' March" brings a March of Dimes caller to your door.

We rather hope Marin will be bright from the light of porch lamps tomorrow night when the Marching Mothers make their rounds.

U.S. Men Spend More On Shave Lotion Than Women On Perfume

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

The American male is getting more fragrant every year. In 1957 he forked out 39 million dollars for after shave lotions, or about eight million more than U.S. women spent on perfume.

But he has plenty of historical precedent. Alexander the Great wore a perfumed battle tunic. Napoleon used up to 54 bottles of cologne a month (he must have nipped on the stuff). And Cardinal Richelieu anticipated the atomizer: He used a perfume bellows to scent his apartment.

U.S. trains are steadily whittling down their passenger service. But Japan is planning a 340-million-dollar rail program featuring a "dream train" which will make the 450-mile run from Tokyo to Osaka at an average speed of 150 m.p.h.

Medical expenses have added to the high cost of living, but Americans still spend more for tobacco and alcoholic beverages than they do for all forms of medical care. They even pay more for chewing gum than they do for research into mental illness.

New Yorkers must be the most time-conscious people in the world. They spend more than a million dollars a year dialing the telephone company to get the correct time.

Everyone knows that Alaska is the largest state, but do you know which is our largest city — in terms of area? It is Los Angeles, which sprawls over 454 square miles.

Farmers now can produce four times as much corn for every hour of work as their grandfathers could 50 years ago. And so can today's comedians.

SNOW ISN'T always white. Red, golden, blue and green snow also has been recorded. The colors are caused variously by dust, minute organisms or pollen. Snowflakes sometimes get as large as saucers. A 10-inch snowfall has the moisture equivalent of an inch of rain.

Why would most teen-agers prefer to live in South Carolina or Texas? Because one can get a driver's license in those states at 14. Incidentally, a one-eyed man can drive in any state—if his remaining orb has proper acuity.

CAPSULE COMMENT: "Ignorance has something to be said for it," points out Bertha Shore. "It accounts for about nine-tenths of the world's conversation."

How happy are we in prosperity? A psychiatrist recently estimated that every minute of the day someone in America tries to commit suicide. Fortunately, most of them don't try too hard.

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

Your occasional articles in the Saturday edition about the early days of Marin County have been very interesting. As relative newcomers to this county, my wife and I have enjoyed them greatly, as our knowledge of the area was expanded.

Also I have a suggestion: about once a week carry the names and addresses of all the local state and federal legislative representatives in a small box. I've seen this done in another paper and believe it was a good public service.

Why Zoning Battle Must Be Refought

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

It is unnecessary to repeat here the advantages of living in Marin County. Similarly Mrs. Lorayne Holtz's eloquent cry from the heart (I-J Jan. 23) at the entry of extraneous forces which threaten her way of life, is equally understandable. But it is equally unrealistic.

America in general, and California in particular is undergoing a dynamic populace increase which forecasts 25 million people in this state by 1975. These people are more than just a statistic. They will have to be fed and housed, and many also will have their dreams, which will be remarkably similar to those which originally activated "The older, well established residents" to move to Marin County.

In a socialistic economy, increasing population is taken care of by government decree. The required number of houses and apartments is determined and then a national master-plan is set up for their location and density, with little regard to the wishes of existing communities. This is the only alternative to a free enterprise economy which, up to now, has supplied Americas housing needs.

With no control this system could well be described as "brazen business forces in league with avaricious sellers of property." But when the developer, acting himself under enlightened self interest, is controlled rather than scorned by the community, he is vital to our system.

What has failed in Marin County is the control. The original zoning ordinances of the county and its cities were more suitable for an agricultural county than what eventually will become part of an urban complex.

What is now needed is a planned increase in available land use by allowing much higher land density in certain areas to absorb the increase in population. At the same time "green belts" and state parks preserve some areas in their natural state.

The present zoning ordinances will spread the population uniformly throughout the area, so that it has an amorphous characterless quality of neither town or country.

Recent zoning ordinances have also all been in the direction of further reducing density. Minimum lot sizes are being continually raised, set back requirement, free areas, right of ways for roads, parking spaces and sizes required are all being raised. And the relative small proportion of land zoned for multiple unit development, which could serve as the nucleus for higher density development, is further whittled away by constant raising of the number of square feet of lot area demanded for each apartment.

In other words, at a time when the county has increasing pressure to take in more people, zoning is used as a weapon to freeze existing land use and so make even less the number of people that could come in.

To make of zoning a barrier instead of a control, is a distortion of planning. Ideal zoning does two things. It strikes a fair balance between the desires of the existing inhabitants and the needs of "outsiders" who wish to move in. It controls the resultant developments by demanding good community planning from the developers by its ordinances but it also allows them an adequate profit.

Unless Marin County and its cities accept their wider social responsibilities voluntarily by adopting a more generous zoning policy, it will have to be decided for them by the state, in which they will have little say.

Until either happens, there will be no solution to the zoning battle as increasing pressure is built up from those outside, who also want their place in the sun.

We Need Better School For Deaf

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

Despite their handicap, deaf children deserve the chance for a fundamental, basic education equal to or better than that of normal children. An oral class for the deaf has existed in the county for years; it has been moved here and there. . . .

We should be proud of what there is for our deaf children. If we cannot be proud, the school department is missing the boat. If you were to write the Marin County Superintendent of Schools asking what provisions there are for oral training of deaf children, what would the answer be?

My answer is that these children and the teacher deserve far better than they are getting. After eight years of struggling existence, where is the progress of this class? . . .

Presently there is a group called "Marin County Parents of Hearing Handicapped Children." If we make headlines and let the situation be known publicly, perhaps the existing class can become better established. . . .

I sincerely hope and pray this county can establish an acceptable, progressive oral education program for deaf children.

If You've Got Out-Of-State License Plates On Your Car, Watch Out

With Wednesday being the deadline for the renewal of car licenses, we understand that some police departments in the county are planning a crackdown on local residents who drive indefinitely with out-of-state plates, chiefly from Nevada and Oregon where fees are less.

The owners' usual alibi is that he has a home there or the car is registered to a relative or some such gimmick.

We understand that local gendarmes will insist on strict adherence to the code which says something about the car being owned and garaged in California.

If that's not what the code says, don't jump on us. We're not lawyers. It's just what they tell us.

WE RECORDED two weeks ago that paint colors to be used on Mill Valley's new sewer plant were under discussion.

We can now report that the city council by a 3-2 vote supported Supt. Louis Brunini's choice of cabrillo and tile red over the architectural advisory committee's recommendation of dove grey and charcoal.

Seem that Brunini's colors make the plant stand out while the committee said its selection would "subdue" it. Brunini, it seems, is mighty proud of that new plant and does not propose to see it "subdued."

What Eight Would Ike Back For President? Well, Here They Are

The other day at the National Press Club, President Eisenhower said that he could "name eight or ten qualified" men whom he would cordially support for the 1960 Republican Presidential nomination.

This produced a resonant buzz of speculation: who are they?

This speculation can now be brought to an end.

Should Eisenhower ever transfer from his mind to a piece of paper the names of the eight or ten potential Republican candidates whom he would gladly support, I will risk saying that it would read as follows:

VICE PRESIDENT Richard M. Nixon whom the President has given special opportunities to equip himself for large service.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York who has served the Eisenhower administration in three important capacities — as chairman of a study group of government reorganization, as assistant to the President coordinating cold-war activities, and as under secretary of health, education and welfare.

Robert B. Anderson, former secretary of the navy, former deputy secretary of defense and presently Secretary of the Treasury, in which post he is one of Eisenhower's closest and most respected advisers.

Neil H. McElroy, secretary of defense almost from the day Moscow put its first Sputnik into orbit; earlier, chairman of the White House Conference on Education and formerly president of Proctor and Gamble.

AMBASSADOR Henry Cabot Lodge, former senator from Massachusetts, chief U.S. representative to the U.N. and as such a functioning member of the Eisenhower Cabinet.

Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, president of the American National Red Cross; successor to Gen. Eisenhower as supreme commander of NATO and one of his closest war-time aides; a military man with a civilian's grasp of civilian affairs.

James P. Mitchell, one of the most widely respected secretaries of labor in the past quarter-century.

C. Douglas Dillon, under-secretary of state for economic affairs, formerly ambassador to France, an investment banker from New York and one of the top talents in Washington today.

There, I feel sure, is the list of eight. If you think that others should reasonably be on the list, then I believe it accurate to say that your thinking differs from that of the President.

It stems, of course, from Eisenhower's acquaintance and reflects primarily personal qualification, not political strength.

IF ONE WERE to narrow the list and combine factors of qualification and political strength, I suspect the President would very likely name four in this order: Nixon, Rockefeller, Anderson, and McElroy.

However, if you confined the criterion to demonstrated ability as Eisenhower has seen it at work, it would not be surprising if Eisenhower should alter the order to make it read Anderson, McElroy, Nixon, and Rockefeller.

Ladies, You're The Tougher Set; It's The Man Who Dies Younger

Congratulations, ladies. You could live through atomic attacks that would kill your husbands. Did you know that? I've been checking research on radiation. Experts say women can absorb more radiation than men and survive. I hope we never have to test their theory.

You are almost indestructible compared with men. Take extremes of heat and cold. There are many exceptions, of course. But most wives stand temperature extremes better than their husbands. Starvation? You can resist that, too. If you ever should be in a situation where you can't get food, you'll live longer than your husband. Disease? Your body fights disease more successfully than his. And you recover quicker after illness.

Life span? Same story. Ten to 12 percent more boy babies are born than girls. By the time they reach the marrying age the excess boys have died off. The males' higher death rate continues. By the forties there's quite a surplus of ladies. From the fifties on the surplus grows, fast. Are you the same age as your husband? Chances are you'll be a widow for 9 years.

In the old days men usually outlived their wives. That was chiefly because of the hazards of childbearing. But doctors have removed most of the hazards. You ladies are having more babies now. But you're having them safely. You survive, and so do your wee ones. Treat your husbands gently, ladies. They're fragile. They aren't as rugged as you. Watch their rest, diet and exercise. Take care of them when they're sick. Encourage reasonable recreation. Get them to the doctor regularly for physical exams. You can prolong their lives.

Rockefeller Asks Huge Tax Increase

ALBANY, N.Y., (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller sent the Legislature a record $2,041,000,000 budget today that calls for the greatest round of tax increases in New York's history.

More than 400,000 people in the low-wage brackets would have to pay state income taxes for the first time to support the mammoth spending plan.

Altogether, the Republican governor advocated new or increased taxes totaling 277 million dollars — on incomes, cigarettes, motor fuel, race-track betting, estates, cigars and pipe tobacco.

PAYROLL DEDUCTIONS
He proposed to put the state income tax on a payroll withholding basis, beginning April 1, and to raise the tax by 150 million dollars — a boost of about 25 per cent for most taxpayers.

So that taxpayers would not have to pay two years' taxes at the same time, he recommended canceling the 1958 income tax, which normally would fall due April 15.

Rockefeller called this a 500-million-dollar "saving" for the people.

FORGIVENESS FOR ALL

The 1958 forgiveness will apply to everyone, even those who have since retired or moved out of state and therefore will not be subject to withholding from 1959 income.

The outlook was that the GOP-controlled Legislature would accept his plan despite Democratic taunts that it was a "soak-the-poor" program.

Rockefeller said the state had fallen into "a critical fiscal situation." He said the problem was that state spending—much of it mandated by law—had soared dizzily while income lagged. The state has been dipping into reserve funds and floating bonds to meet the constitutional requirement for a balanced budget.

Tam District Administrative Costs Show Percentage Drop

The cost of administration in the Tamalpais Union High School District consumes a smaller percentage of the operating budget now than it did 10 years ago, Howard I. McGill, chairman of the Citizens Committee for Education, said today.

In 1948-49, he said, administrative costs were 4.49 per cent of the total operating budget. Today, the figure is only 4.24 per cent.

"This compares favorably with similar Bay Area districts which have more than one high school," McGill continued. "Ours is 4.2 per cent. In Hayward, the figure is 5.4 per cent; Alcatraz (Contra Costa County), 4.5 per cent; Jefferson (San Mateo County), 4.2 per cent, and Sequoia (San Mateo County), 3.4 per cent."

Feb. 17, calls for an increase in the operating tax rate ceiling from $1.25 to $1.90. This tax pays for the day-to-day running of the district's three high schools—Drake, Redwood and Tamalpais.

"Administrative costs" cover these persons and duties, McGill explained: Salaries of Chester G. Carlisle, superintendent of schools; Frank Cassou, director of business services, and six clerical employees.

Centralized bookkeeping and accounting, payroll, purchasing, property inventory, cafeteria purchasing and accounting, and storekeeping; an annual audit; travel, election and board expenses; office machines and their maintenance; office supplies, and utilities for district headquarters.

Applications Due For Marin College

Tomorrow is the last day for filing admission applications for the spring semester commencing Feb. 9, at College of Marin. The applications must be filed by new students along with transcripts of high school and any previous college work.

Entrance examinations are set for Wednesday and Thursday. New students will register Friday. Paul Clymer, college vice president, reminded that veterans enrolling under the G.I. Bill must show their letters of entitlement at the time of registration.

Returning students who have already filed a spring semester program, may register Wednesday, Thursday or Friday. Students who have not filed their programs will report at the gymnasium Friday to see their advisers, plan a program and register. Clymer said. Classes will begin next Monday.

Newsman's Bill Sought

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-N.Y.) has announced he will introduce a bill to permit newsmen to keep their news sources confidential except where national security is involved.

Keating said he would push for early hearings by the Senate Judiciary Committee on the "admittedly controversial subject."

San Anselmo Traffic Deaths In 3 Years: 0

San Anselmo completed its third year without a traffic fatality, according to a summary of 1958 traffic accidents released today by Police Chief Donald T. Wood.

Last year there were 253 traffic accidents on San Anselmo streets, only one more accident than the previous year.

Thirty-five persons riding in motor vehicles were injured last year, 10 pedestrians were injured and two bicyclists were injured, according to the report prepared by Officer James A. Farmer.

AGES OF INJURED

Of the 47 injured, 20 were aged 20 or under. Of the 455 drivers involved in accidents, 79 were in the 16 to 20 year age bracket, the largest number in any five-year range. However, the police department had no record of the ages of 108 drivers.

Of the drivers involved in accidents, 314 were men and 130 were women. Less than half the drivers were San Anselmo residents.

Accidents in residential areas totaled 133, while business district accidents numbered 133. Thirty-four persons were injured in residential area traffic accidents and 13 were injured in the business district.

MOST ACCIDENTS

The evening rush hour, from 5 to 6 p.m., proved to result in the most traffic accidents last year. There were 36 accidents in that hour. From 3 to 4 p.m. there were 35 accidents and from 4 to 5 p.m., 23 accidents.

Sir Francis Drake boulevard, San Anselmo's major thoroughfare, was the site of 87 intersection accidents compared with 17 on San Anselmo avenue and 4 on Red Hill avenue.

The rear end to front end type collision, common to heavy traffic conditions, accounted for 99 traffic accidents making it the largest number for a single type of accident.

Last year's traffic accidents caused an estimated $41,036 property damage.

Social Security 'Bonuses' In Mail

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government begins mailing father checks today to more than 12½ million Social Security beneficiaries.

Social Security Commissioner William L. Mitchell said the benefit checks will be about 7 per cent higher. They will go to old age, survivors, and disability insurance beneficiaries.

As a result, the January payments will run about 50 million dollars higher than in the previous month when they totaled about 690 million dollars.

The hikes were authorized by the last Congress. Heretofore, monthly payments to a retired worker, aged 65, ranged from $30 to $108.50. The January checks range from $33 to $116. The maximum monthly payment to a family—formerly $200, now is $254.

Realtors To Hear State Official

Gaylord K. Nye, assistant state real estate commissioner, will address the Marin County Real Estate Board tomorrow at an 8 a.m. breakfast meeting in King Cotton restaurant, San Rafael.

Nye's address on "The Mortgage Loan Provisions of Our Law," will cover the ramifications — and pitfalls — of second mortgages and short term discounting.

HORN BLOWERS, CURB THAT NOISY IMPULSE

ATLANTA (UPI) — A suburban drive-in has noticed quite a decline in horn-blowers since its carhops began handing out cards with this verse:

When you want to call your waiter
And you're sitting all forlorn—
You will get him to you quicker
With your lights than with your horn.

For there ain't a man among us
Who has eyesight that has grown
To the point where he can look around
And see whose horn was blown.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Alcorn's Had It

SUFFIELD, Conn. (UPI)—Republican National Chairman Meade Alcorn wasn't looking forward today to another term. "One hitch in this job is enough," Alcorn said yesterday at his home. "Anyone who has served in this job for one term has served about as long as he would want to."

Alcorn's term expires at the GOP National Convention in the summer of 1960. He succeeded Leonard Hall two years ago yesterday.

Bandits Get $327,000

GENEVA (UPI)—Three bandits held up a van making cash deliveries to a Geneva bank today and escaped with the equivalent of $327,000.

One of the men was armed with a submachine gun. They slugged an employee of the Banque Nationale Suisse who was standing guard over a postal van while messengers delivered cases of money to the bank.

Mass Said In Moscow

MOSCOW (UPI)—Moscow's first Roman Catholic priest from the Western world since 1955 said Mass yesterday for his new parishioners. At both services he prayed for the conversion of the Soviet Union.

Father Louis F. Dion, 46, of Worcester, Mass., is the first Roman Catholic priest the Soviet Union has permitted since they expelled another American member of the Assumption order, Rev. Georges L. Bissonette of Central Falls, R.I., in 1955.

Following Too Closely

ASHLAND, Ky. (UPI)—Odd, thought W. S. Patton, how closely a pickup truck had been following his car.

Then he got out and learned why. His car was towing the driverless truck. Patton said he apparently hooked bumpers with the truck in pulling away from a parking place.

Beauty—For Free

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI)—Beauty salons worked overtime at five Dallas beauty parlors yesterday, giving free permanents to nearly 200 elderly women and orphan girls.

The treatments were given by members of the Texas Assn. of Accredited Beauty Culturists to residents of charitable institutions.

The observance was started about 10 years ago by a retired Dallas beautician, Miss Mae Whitley. The free hair waves were in observance of National Beauty Salon Week.

No More Bite For Him

INGLEWOOD (UPI)—Chris Stanley had been biting himself too frequently, so he had his two front teeth removed.

They were the only two he had. Chris is one month old.

3 Trampled To Death

SINGAPORE (UPI)—One aged man and two elderly women were trampled to death in a week-end stampede to collect Chinese new year money packets from a Chinese temple outside the city.

More than 2,000 old people and beggars who waited night-long stormed the temple gate when it was opened yesterday morning for distribution of packets containing five Malaya dollars. The victims stumbled and were stomped to death by the mob behind them.

Lewis 'Quite Ill'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—John L. Lewis, 77, president of the United Mine Workers was described as "quite ill," yesterday by his physician.

Dr. John Minor's report came after Lewis had an attack while under observation at Georgetown University Hospital.

Lewis, who entered the hospital Friday, suffered either an attack of embolus or pneumonia, the physician said. Embolus was defined as a foreign or abnormal particle circulating in the blood.

Reds Name Best Film

TOKYO (UPI)—The Communists announced today that a movie called "Daughters of the Communist Party" had been chosen overwhelmingly as Red China's best film for 1958.

The Communist New China News agency said workers, peasants, soldiers, students and government officials voted in a poll and cast two-thirds of their ballots for the movie which describes the 1927-1937 struggle between the Communists and the Nationalist forces of Chiang Kai-Shek.

Diana Dors' Mate Dies

LONDON (UPI)—Dennis Hamilton, 32, estranged husband of British pinup actress Diana Dors, died Saturday. He had been hospitalized a week with heart trouble.

Apprenticeship Ends

SOUTHOLD, N. Y. (UPI)—Village blacksmith Spencer W. Petty, 82, who opened shop here 55 years ago, today ended his son's long apprenticeship.

Petty retired and turned the business over to his 60-year-old son, Spencer Jr.

Audrey Has Bad Day

DURANGO, Mexico (UPI)—Her doctors and her husband planned to fly Audrey Hepburn to Hollywood today despite a setback in her condition.

The doctors said the actress, who suffered broken vertebrae when thrown from a horse last week, had a bad day of it yesterday and could not rest, sleep or eat.

One doctor thought she might have suffered other injuries not yet diagnosed. Another said she might just be having a delayed shock reaction.

Balloon Test Delayed

BROWNWOOD, Tex. (UPI)—Scientists preparing to send aloft balloons as large as small hotels today postponed their efforts for the second straight day because of unfavorable winds. When launched, the craft may break altitude records.

The initial launching set for yesterday also was postponed because of high wind.

Dr. Frank McDonald, University of Iowa physicist, said the scientists wish to send the unmanned instrument-loaded balloons 27 miles from the earth.

Four balloons are to be released over a two-week period by 14 scientists from the University of Iowa, Washington University of St. Louis and Atlantic Research Corp.

Wife Disobeyed, And . .

ACQUI, Italy (UPI)—Domenico Resti, 30, said today he intended to separate from his bride of three months because she used some money for household expenses instead of playing a lottery.

Resti said he gave his wife, Angela, $1.60 before he left for Milan on business and instructed her to play certain numbers in the lottery. In Milan he read with joy that the numbers had won with a possible prize of $32,000. But when he returned home he discovered Angela and neglected to follow his instructions.

Nuclear Talks Continue

GENEVA (UPI)—The deadlocked U. S.-British-Russian nuclear test talks entered their 12th week today with no prospect of early agreement in sight.

The three-power discussions this week were expected to revolve around voting power in a proposed nuclear control organization, staffing of a control network and the choice of a site for peaceful atomic blasts in the event an agreement is reached.

Negotiations have slowed considerably in recent weeks as representatives of the three nations cleared away preliminary matters and edged closer to the crux of the conference.

Russ Gain By Espionage

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (UPI)—The chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee last night said espionage has produced much of Soviet Russia's scientific progress.

Rep. Francis E. Walter (D-Pa.) said Soviet agents "have acquired some of our secrets" that have played a "vital role" in Russian successes.

In a radio discussion Walters said his committee plans a thorough review of U. S. counterespionage laws and policies, including those applying to foreign diplomats.
